This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATORY NOTES

WHAT shall one say ? Bricks cannot be made without straw nor Prefatory Notes without prefatory matter. Originally the sole object of this section of B.A.R. was to provide information likely to be serviceable. So, in Volume 2 indications of the method of arrangement were given, and in Volume 3 certain strictures respecting looseness of style in cataloguing. In volume 4 the fount began to run dry, and now, in Volume 5, it seems to have dried-up altogether. Discursions upon the auction-experiences of past twelvemonths do not appeal to me. They seem only to repeat facts already recorded in the volumes, and, like most réchauffés, to be so lukewarm and wanting in piquancy as to be un-appetising. Perhaps a review of personal editorial experiences may prove not uninteresting, and a certain receptacle into which is cast anything out of the common may repay ransacking.

Let us begin with printers' errors. The following four examples provide food for diversion. Fortunately they were detected while there was yet time. One entry credited Captain John Smith—of Pocahontas fame—with having written a work on "Eno's Improvement." I wondered what the renowned captain knew about Eno's Fruit Salt, until reference showed that what was intended to be set up was " England's Improvement," published in 1670, a century and a half before the advertising chemist was born. Another instance was the title, " Cocking and its Votaries," dealing of course with cock-fighting. This had been set up as "Cooking and its Votaries." The third was " tooled sides " for " tooled sides," and the fourth was Mr. Andrew Lang's "Ballads in Glue China." A fifth was Matthew Arnold's " Alaric at Rome," which appeared as " Alaric at Home," and, not being detected, it received the distinction of print. A sixth has not yet been unearthed.

The personal feeling which the publication has engendered between myself and strangers has been remarkable, and has been to me far higher reward than the commercial success which has attended it. When it is no unusual thing for persons whom you have never seen to conclude letters evincing strong interest in B.A.R. with such phrases as " with the kindest of kind regards " you feel that your subscribers and yourself are on the most desirable terms.

Among the more characteristic examples may be quoted the following passages from various correspondents :

" I have spent whole days studying the vols. I have. As the ancient mariner held the wedding guest so B.A.R. holds me."

of using thirty years ago. The question is entirely one of taste, and my estimate of that may perhaps be as correct as many other persons.' As regards " bunkum " (a word, by the way, which was formerly a slang expression, but which you do not hesitate to use), I can only assure you that I am always in deadly earnest in anything I take up, and that if I state that I can and mean to do a certain thing, I do do it, and that is why I enjoy the absolute confidence of my subscribers. That, in short, is why all kinds of information comes into my hands. For instance, I knew months ago that you were all right in the long run, or I should not have continued to send B.A.R. I knew that you have been seen to give 10/- at a roadside station to a poor woman who was walking to ——— with an ailing child, to get to a hospital, a woman who was an entire stranger, and who did not ask for a penny, but with whose condition you sympathized. I am gratified to have such a subscriber on my list, and hope we may always be very good friends. The fact that you appreciate B.A.R. is to me the main feature of your letter, and I do not care for much else. I hope to be in ——— soon, and to have the pleasure of calling upon you ; and I promise not to use any slang while in your place."

The proposed meeting duly occurred, and fully justified the hope.

The following is an interesting letter :—

" I notice that you are strenuous in insisting upon booksellers cataloguing their books with historical and literary accuracy, the most frequent cause of offence being the Bacon-Verulam trouble, and, in this connection the opinion of a very high authority on the subject might interest you. Dean Alford, in his Book, The Queen's English, says, ' A correspondent has charged me with falling into the blunder of calling the distinguished philosopher Lord Bacon, which he never was. Surely one who is contending for usage against pedantry stands acquitted here. How far the title ' Lord Bacon ' has prevailed may be seen in the lettering of the backs of the volumes of the only good edition of his works, that by Heath, Ellis, and Spedding.' Thus Dean Alford, and personally I am inclined to agree with him. As the name of Bacon is more familiar to the public than the name of Verulam the former is the one which the bookseller should use. It can hardly be denied also that Sir John Lubbock and Avebury threaten to constitute a debateable matter for a future generation of bibliophiles."

My reply was, " So much the worse for Alford, Heath, Ellis, and Spedding. They ought to have known better." James 1st made Bacon Lord Verulam, and no man, however learned he may be, can make him " Lord Bacon." By attempting it he either writes himself careless beyond expression, or an ignoramus. But my correspondent quite misses my point when he says that " Lord Bacon " should be used as a matter of expediency. I never suggested that Bacon's title—Verulam—should be used, but I asserted that instead of being wrongly styled " Lord Bacon " he should be called by his proper name, Sir Francis Bacon. The Lubbock illustration is also not à propos. No one would dream of styling

Lord Avebury "Lord Lubbock," but that is just precisely what Alford did in the case of Bacon, and if he were alive to-day I should not hesitate to tell the author of "The Queen's English" that he did not quite understand his business. The author of a book with such a title should have been the first to protest, by word and example, against such a gross misuse of terms. In this connexion it is interesting to recall the fact that the editor of "The Maclise Portrait Gallery" 1883, says (page 361), with regard to "Lord Bacon,"

> "It is as erroneous as would be that of 'Lord Disraeli' applied to the Earl of Beaconsfield. Yet we laugh at Frenchmen who speak of 'Sir Peel' and such like!" Just so!

To change the subject let us have another chat about sale-cataloguing, for there are still bones to pick with the cataloguers. For instance, what is meant by "an original Henry VIII. binding"? It might be anything; paper, boards, vellum, calf, pigskin, morocco, or whatnot. Will the concocter of this expression explain? Then, in one catalogue this year "Thomas Ingoldsby" appears as the author of "The Ingoldsby Legends,"! Shade of Barham! His ghost should haunt the perpetrator of the deed. To an ordinary person it would seem obvious that the works of an author should be placed under his surname, and not under his christian name. Thus, Paulus Jovius should go under "Jovius" and not under "Paulus," just as John Smith's works should be placed under "Smith" and not under "John." This particular fault was printed in a catalogue of Mar. 27, 1906. In another catalogue we find a book described as being "bound by Francis Bedford," but no statement as to how it was bound. Such terms as "full morocco" and "morocco gilt extra" are redundancies. "Morocco," alone, implies that the binding is a whole one, while "extra" means that the cover is extra gilt, and to say "morocco extra gilt" is the same as saying "morocco gilt gilt," which, as Euclid would say, "is absurd." French terms still flourish in our English catalogues, and so we get such words as "fatiguée" instead of "worn" and "Grand Papier" instead of "Large Paper." It is just as easy, if not indeed a trifle easier, to use one's own language as to use a foreign one. Prolixity and tautology, too, are every-day evils. No one wishes to be informed first that a book is "in the original uncut condition" and afterwards to be told in a note that "the edges are entirely uncut." Or it will first be stated that a book is "fine, perfect and genuine throughout" and two lines later that it is "quite perfect." Whence, Oh! whence this thusness? Perchance the only remedy for such want of precision will be to start an institution somewhat upon the following lines:

ACADEMY FOR TEACHING AUCTION-CATALOGUING

Principal—Professor Instinct

Assistant Masters—Messrs. Brains; Care; Common-Sense; Experience; Observation; and Pride-in-Work.

Terms—Lessons gratis, provided that pupils are anxious to learn how not to make fools of themselves.

And there let us leave the matter.

Occasionally I hear growls such as references to "our wretched trade." This happens with every calling, because those who are in them see the inside, and the inside of a garment is always seamy. But the growlers are much mistaken. Bookselling is more of a profession than a trade, and if the growlers had been taught something else their growls would have been fiercer than they are. Fancy, for instance, beginning as a butcher at 20 years of age. Say you live to be 70. Then you are still cutting up joints, and going to market, just as you did at 20. You have learnt nothing. Or if you become a baker at 20, still at 70 years of age you are setting the sponge and handing loaves over the counter, just as you did at 20. You have learnt nothing. If one has to earn one's living it is impossible to do so in a pleasanter, a more elevating occupation than that of buying and selling books. So please don't growl. You may go further and fare much worse. Besides, as a subscriber said to me a day or two ago, " You never know your luck." An example of this was the case of another subscriber who one day made £350 through picking up a first edition of an English classic for a shilling or two, and sending it to Sotheby's. He wasn't a very big man, and the find was a blessing. In another case a subscriber in a small way of business bought a tiny 12mo. for a shilling, and learnt through B.A.R. that its value was £43. I don't call a trade a " wretched " one that possesses such chances as these.

Even while this page has been passing through the press comes the following testimony to the value of works of reference to the dealer in books :—" August 11, 1908. Herewith P.O.'s for £1 11s. 6d. for enclosed account. I must say that it is splendid value, and a work that ought to be in every antiquarian bookseller's possession. Another instance of what your work has done for me ; I bought a scarce item and would have sold it for two or three shillings, but upon looking up records found that same had sold for £2 17s. 6d. ; a wide difference between that sum and two or three shillings. Shall be pleased to have the other 4 volumes of B.A.R. Trusting that you can so oblige me as your work is indeed most valuable to me."

Let us end the season's reminiscences on a note of humour. Once, for the fun of the thing, I advertised, week after week, something to the following effect :—" B.A.R. never advertises, but, if you want to know where to get it, write to 35 Pond Street, Hampstead." A subscriber asked me what I meant by advertising that I didn't advertise. He was much too good a fellow for me to tell him that he had not much sense of humour, so I merely said that I didn't know. He was much puzzled. Another persistently addresses his envelopes to " Frank Karslake, Esq., B.A.R." which appears to evince his belief in the advent of a new Order. It really makes one feel that one need not seek to have one's name decorated with any such mystic initials as A.B.C., S.P.Q.R., or X.Y.Z. And, finally, another said, " Where did you dig up the Troglodytes ? " I told him they were discovered at the Crystal Palace, among the prehistoric animals. " Oh," he said, " I see."

The circulation of B.A.R. has during the past year made greater progress than ever, so in the happiest possible of moods, Au revoir !

SOME NOTES ON SCOTTISH PRINTING and the Libraries and Book Trade of Edinburgh, by ADAM SMAIL, (author of "Side Lights on the Forty-five," &c.), John Knox's House, Edinburgh.

THE literary history of Scotland, so far as the output of printed books is concerned, may be definitely fixed as commencing in 1505. We are indebted to the Edinburgh Bibliographical Society for a very important contribution to Scottish literature in the monograph entitled "A List of Books printed in Scotland before 1700, including those printed furth of the Realm for Scottish Booksellers, with brief notes on the Printers and Stationers," by Harry G. Aldis (now of Cambridge University Library), 4to., pp. xvi., 153, 1904.

An analysis of this noteworthy volume shows that from 1505 to 1569, 74 works are known to have been printed, chiefly in Edinburgh; 1570 to 1599, 250; 1600 to 1629, 397; 1630 to 1659, 898; 1660 to 1689, 1379; and from 1690 to 1699, 921. This brings out a total of 3,919 publications of all kinds, many of these being issued from the Edinburgh presses. The honour of being the earliest printers in Scotland is divided between Walter Chepman, a merchant burgess of Edinburgh, and Androw Myllar, also a burgess of that town. The first printing press in Scotland was set up by them under a patent granted by King James IV., 15th September, 1507, in the Southgait (now Cowgate), at the foot of Blackfriars Wynd. Their earliest dated imprint is 4th April, 1508, on "The maying or disport of Chaucer." The Edinburgh printers who succeeded were, up to 1602: J. Story, T. Davidson, J. Scot, R. Lekpreuik, T. Bassandyne, J. Ross, A. Arbuthnet, H. Charteris, T. Vautrollier, R. Waldegrave, R. Smyth, and R. Charteris. The subjects dealt with in their publications include religious works, poetry, acts of Parliament and proclamations, history, etc. From 1604 to 1647, the printers were: T. Finlason and his Heirs, A. Hart, his heirs and successors, E. Raban, J. Wreittoun, R. Young, G. Anderson and his heirs, J. Bryson, R. Bryson, and his heirs, R. and J. Bryson, Young and Tyler, E. Tyler, J. Lindesay, and G. Lithgow. Their publications resembled those of the earlier printers, with the addition of medical and scholastic works. From 1653 to 1695 the printers were: A. Anderson and his partners, heirs and successors, C. Higgins, Society of Stationers, I. H., G. & J. Swintoun, J. Glen, D. Trench, and T. Brown (together and alone), J. Cairns, W. Carron, J. Reid, J. S., Brown, Glen, and Weir, D. Lindsay and several partners, J. Watson, P. Bruce G. Mosman, and J. Watson, Jr. Military works and newspapers may be added to the subjects detailed above. It is most interesting to find Penn (Wm.) "Some Fruits of Solitude" .... Second Edition, 12mo., Edin., 1694. Almanacs, Bibles, Catechisms, Confessions of Faith, Darien Company, Declarations, Henry the Minstrel's Life of Wallace, Letters, Sir D. Lindsay's Works, Psalms, and Theses, occupy a large portion of the copious and elaborate index. The most noteworthy printers are Andrew Anderson (1653–76), Alexander Arbuthnet (1574–1585), Thomas Bassandyne (1564–1577), Andro Hart (1610–21), Christopher Higgins (1652 (?)–60), David Lindsay and his partners (1681–85), Evan Tyler (1642–82), James Watson and his son (1686–1722) and Robert Young (1632–42).

After 1700, the notices of Edinburgh printers and publishers form too large a subject for adequate treatment here, but curious and unexpected details of no little interest can be found by seekers for knowledge. The following may serve as an example. The first Circulating library in Scotland was established by Allan Ramsay, the famous Scottish poet, author of "The Gentle Shepherd," a dramatic pastoral which is still popular, although published so long ago as 1725. His shop was situated in the High Street, opposite Niddry's Wynd, and here the wits of the city met daily for information or amusement during the days of Ramsay and those who succeeded him. The plays of that day were viewed with suspicion by many good folk, and "honest Allan" was blamed for lending these dramatic pieces to some whose morals were likely to be injured by their perusal. About 1736 he opened the first play-house erected in Scotland, in Carrubber's Close, not far from his shop, and a few doors above John Knox's house, but the Act for licensing the stage, 10 Geo. II., Cap. 28, passed June 24th, 1737, had the effect of closing the theatre after an existence of little more than six months. It is probable that Ramsay was a heavy loser by the failure of this speculation. He gave up his business in 1755, and died in 1757, in his 73rd year. His circulating library was purchased by James Sibbald, who began business in Parliament Square. Sir Walter Scott, when a boy, used to frequent this library, and made good use of his opportunity for acquiring the knowledge he was able to turn to such good account in later life. Sibbald was the author of "The Record of the Public Ministry of Jesus the Christ," 1798, and compiled a "Chronicle of Scottish Poetry, with a Glossary," 4 vols., 1802. The circulating library of Allan Ramsay, already mentioned as acquired by Sibbald, is included in a volume bearing the following attractive title: "A New Catalogue of the Edinburgh Circulating Library: containing twenty thousand volumes, English, French, and Italian (of History, etc.), including all the Books that have been lately published in every Branch of Literature, likewise Music and Prints, which are lent by the year, half-year, or quarter, by J. Sibbald, Bookseller, Stationer, and Printseller, Parliament Square, Edinburgh, Price One Shilling." no date; but three Appendixes have been added for 1781–2–3. The terms of subscription are prefixed (4 vols. at a guinea a year, or 7s. 6d. a quarter, including Reviews, Magazines, and New Pamphlets of every sort, together with such prints (one at a time), as are allotted for that purpose; one book, or two vols. of the same book at half-a-guinea a year, or 3s. 6d. a quarter). This Catalogue of 206 pages, 8vo., has prices attached to most of the 4,687 items, which comprise various classes of literature, including Anatomy, Physic, etc. Nisbet's System of Heraldry, 2 vols., £4 4s., is to be seen in the Library, but not lent out; Pontoppidan's "Natural History of Norway," folio, £3, Burney's "General History of Music," 2 vols., 4to., £3 3s.; Ware's "Complete Body of Architecture," folio, £2 2s.; and "Harleian Miscellany," 8 vols., 4to., £8 8s.; give a good impression of the artistic and literary taste of Edinburgh readers. The Novels and Romances occupy more than 30 pages, and cost generally 3s. per volume. Some of the works of fiction are in 4 or 5 volumes, or even in 8, as in the case of "Sir Charles Grandison," Curious titles are not uncommon: e. g.: "Mock Monarchs, or the benefits of high blood," 2 vols., 7s.; "Scotchman, or the world as it goes," 3 vols., 9s.; "Life and Imaginations of Sally Paul," 3s.; "Shandymonian, or an higgledy-piggledy of opinions," 2s. 6d. Sibbald died in 1803.

The publishers and booksellers of the Scottish metropolis during the last sixty years have been very ably dealt with by Mr. Robert Cochrane in an article entitled "Scotland for Ever! Edinburgh as the World's best Book-buying City," which appeared in The Book Monthly for August, 1907, No. 11, Vol. IV. (London, Simpkin). To that instructive and well-informed paper I may therefore be allowed to refer the readers of "B. A. R." The present writer's memories of the trade in Edinburgh go back more than forty years, and many changes and improvements in buildings, locomotion, and manners and customs have been effected. In former times, holidays were fewer and working hours rather longer. Eight o'clock closing and five on Saturdays were usual in the retail trade. Summer and Christmas Numbers were rare, and the magazines had to depend on wood-engraving in most cases for their illustrations. "Good Words," "The Sunday Magazine," "The Argosy," 'All the Year Round," "Chambers's Journal," "The Leisure Hour," "Sunday at Home," and other periodicals supplied good and wholesome reading to an appreciative public. Many works appeared thus which subsequently in book form attained assured popularity. The discount system of twopence in the shilling was the rule, so that it surprised the present writer when this startling question was put: "Is it here you give 4½d. off the shilling?"

Mr. James McIntosh, a veteran, carried on business in North College Street, long since swept away with many other old buildings for the formation of Chambers Street. His shop was small and crowded with books, but the back window overlooking the Cowgate was always scrupulously clean. One moruing a pane was broken and in fear and trembling the assistant had it replaced in the hope of escaping the wrath of the irate master. His sharp eye detected something wrong, and he exclaimed "That window has not been like that since the Queen's Coronation!" Mr. McIntosh and his son have passed away, and also many other worthies of "the good old times." Among these may be named Mr. Duncan Maclachlan, of the firm of Maclachlan and Stewart; Messrs. E. and S. Livingstone, so graphically described by "R.L.S." in "A College Magazine," Mr. Brown, College Street, who closed for a month in summer to enjoy a holiday; Mr. Lindsay and his son, Mr. T. G. Stevenson, editor and publisher, whose old-world shop had a character all its own (his catalogue issued in 1839 contained 1673 items and occupied 136 pages, 8vo.), Mr. James Stillie, who loved his books so much that he declared to a customer desiring to purchase a certain book, "It would grieve me to part with it, I'll rather keep it." His stock was large and included many rare books. Mr. James Braidwood at the sign of the head of George Buchanan, 26, George Street, had a good business in second-hand books, and his catalogues were worthy of perusal. In the shop, 49, South Bridge, Messrs. Ogle and Murray carried on the business commenced by Mr. William Laing, who afterwards assumed as partner his notable son, David, the firm becoming W. and D. Laing. Lockhart, in his clever sketches bearing the title of "Peter's Letters to his Kinsfolk," published in 1819, depicts in a very happy manner his impression of this distinguished bookseller and librarian, when a very young man. The present writer distinctly remembers his first interview with Dr. Laing. By the way, he strongly objected to be addressed by this title. About 1870, while arranging the library of the Rev. Dr. Thomas McCrie (1772–1835), which had passed into the possession of his son, the younger McCrie (1797–1875), and afterwards into the hands of an Edinburgh bookseller, the writer was surprised by the visit of a staid old gentleman, ruddy-cheeked and benevolent in aspect. From some remarks made regarding the examination of this library thirty years earlier, he was evidently one able to speak with authority as to its character and value. Later acquaintance only deepened the admiration of his acumen and discernment as displayed in the extent and depth of his knowledge in literary matters. On one occasion a volume was submitted for his inspection, and it was stated to be unique. After a brief inspection the volume was handed back with the significant remark, "facsimile title," thus proving that at least another copy must have existed. His vast library was in many respects one of the most remarkable that had ever been collected in Scotland, and its dispersal created much interest in literary and bibliographical circles at home and abroad. Three other book collectors whose libraries deserve mention were Messrs. Whitefoord Mackenzie, Maidment and Gibson Craig, all bibliophiles of the good, old-fashioned type.

The hereditary taste for literature receives a striking illustration in the following facts. Mr. Alexander Macredie commenced business with two partners as publishers and booksellers under the title of "Macredie, Skelly, and Mackersy," at No. 34, Princes Street, about 1820. This partnership was dissolved four years later and Mr. Macredie became the chief publisher and bookseller for the Church of Scotland. In 1846, his nephews Myles and William Macphail succeeded him, the former taking the publishing and the latter the printing portion of the business at Greenside place. "Macphail's Edinburgh Ecclesiastical Journal" fought bravely for the Church of Scotland under William's editorship in the stormy years after the Disruption. Among its constant contributors, during its quarter of a century's existence, were eminent men who occupied high positions in theology and literature. Thomas De Quincey was a frequent writer in its columns. The firm was dissolved in 1854. Myles went abroad, and William began as bookseller, publisher and printer at 98, Princes Street, the printing works being removed to St. James's Square. After various changes of premises, he confined his attention to second-hand books, chiefly in antiquarian and Scottish literature. At his death in 1884 the business passed into the hands of his son, Alexander W. Macphail, grandnephew of Alexander Macredie. He deals in pictures and prints, as well as books, at 10, St. Giles Street, near St. Giles Cathedral and the Law Courts. From 1820 to 1862, the firm issued the chief works in theology of "the auld kirk," and long had a monopoly of the school books issued by a Society for use in all Parish Schools throughout Scotland.

The annals of Edinburgh in time past as now are intimately associated with books in libraries and shops. One of the most notable among the former is the Advocates' Library, which has a most interesting history. It was founded in 1682 by Sir George Mackenzie of Rosehaugh, King's advocate, and Dean of the Faculty of Advocates, and opened in 1689. In 1692 it contained 3,140 books, but in 1709 it became one of the five privileged libraries in the United Kingdom entitled to a copy of every work registered at Stationers' Hall. The collection is very large and valuable owing to this privilege, and the numerous donations which have been made from time to time. It contains upwards of 320,000 volumes and 2,000 MSS. Among the purchases may be named the great Spanish library of the Marquis of Astorga, acquired for the sum of £4,000 in 1824. This collection is rich in early editions of Cervantes and other classics of Spain, and is now worth much more than the price for which it was obtained. Many other literary treasures, MS. and printed are to be found in this famous library. The original manuscript of Scott's epoch-making "Waverley," is worthy of special mention, as also the first book printed from movable metal type by Gutenberg and Fust, 1450–55. This is a fine and perfect Mazarine Bible, so named from the celebrated cardinal, who possessed a copy of this precious work.

Among its former librarians may be named the learned Thomas Ruddiman, David Hume, Adam Fergusson, David Irving, LL.D., T. H. Jamieson, and J. T. Clark. This post is now occupied by Mr. W. Kirk Dickson, M.A., who has published several volumes, biographical and historical. The catalogue of the library issued in 1692, with a preface by Sir George Mackenzie, a Valle Rosarum, had 152 pages, but the latest, (1867–79) 7 quarto volumes, has 5,616 pages. This, however, does not by any means comprise the whole contents of the library, additions being catalogued on slips, arranged alphabetically for easy reference.

Access to its stores is freely granted to all who are really in search of information on literary matters, past or present. The Great Hall of the Library is about 130 feet long and 45 feet wide and in it is placed the statue of Sir Walter Scott, by Greenshields.

The Library of the Society of Writers to His Majesty's Signet, in close proximity to the Advocates' Library, has a claim on the attention of bibliographers. It was founded in 1722 as a law library, and was at first housed in the Signet Office, Writers' Court, adjoining the Royal Exchange, and in the immediate vicinity of the Law Courts. Cleriheugh's Tavern in Writers' Court, was a favourite resort of the municipal dignitaries and lawyers of "the good old times." The Signet Library, in Parliament Square, now contains about 100,000 volumes in all classes of literature, more especially law and Scottish history, topography and antiquities. Its first regularly appointed librarian was Mr. Macvey Napier, who held the office for thirty years, and did much to advance its interests. He was succeeded in 1837 by the accomplished bibliographer, Dr. David Laing, to whom Scotland is greatly indebted for publications dealing chiefly with early poetry, ballads and metrical romances. He edited antiquarian books, including the works of John Knox, the Scottish Reformer, and acted as Secretary of the Bannatyne Club from its formation in 1823 to its close in 1861. He died in 1878, aged 85.

Dr. Thomas Graves Law, his successor, was an able writer and editor, whose work as author and librarian is worthy of commendation. Mr. John Philip Edmond, former librarian to Lord Lindsay only held office for a short time prior to his lamented death. The present librarian is Mr. John Minto, brother of the late Professor William Minto, of Aberdeen, author of several works on literary subjects. The library, erected at a cost of £25,000, is well adapted for its purpose. The Great Hall is 170 feet long by 42 wide. A recent addition on the west side of the library has given several new rooms, constructed on the most approved principles.

The Library of Solicitors in the Supreme Courts is, as the name implies, chiefly legal, and its use is practically confined to the members, who are known as S.S.C.'s.

The Public Library in George IV. Bridge, is a handsome building. It is divided into a reference department, where many valuable works in various departments of literature may be consulted ; a lending department, which is greatly appreciated, with a juvenile section, forming a favourite resort of the young folk of the central district of the city, and a reading room where the daily and weekly newspapers and magazines may be perused. The librarian is Mr. Hew Morrison, LL.D. There are several branches in connection with the Central Library, all being free to householders, or those for whom they become responsible.

The Library of the University of Edinburgh began with the bequest of the library of Mr. Clement Little, Commissary of Edinburgh, in 1580, to the city, "and the Kirk of God." It consisted of about 300 volumes, mostly theological, and was housed near St. Giles' Church, until its removal to the old college about 1582. Drummond of Hawthornden was one of the notable donors, and Mr. J. O. Halliwell's remarkable collection of works relating to Shakespeare added in 1872 formed a very valuable addition to this noble library, which contains about 200,000 volumes and 7,000 manuscripts.

The recent formation of an old Edinburgh club will be observed with pleasure. Its objects are " the collection and authentication of oral and written statements or documentary evidence relating to Edinburgh; the gathering of existing traditions, legends and historical data; and the selecting and printing of material desirable for future reference." The annual subscription is 10s 6d., and it is intended that at least one volume will be issued in each year. The Earl of Rosebery is the Honorary President of the Club.

Much more might be said regarding Scott's " romantic town," but what has already been detailed may serve to throw some fresh light on a subject full of interest to the book lover. The pursuit of literature, by the publisher, bookseller, or librarian is most fascinating, and the opportunities of acquiring knowledge are many and varied. That book collecting, book dealing, and book reading may prosper is our earnest desire !

COLLOQUIALISMS

The great amount of work in connection with the First Annual Dinner and the First Annual Meeting of the Second-hand Booksellers' Association has kept B.A.R. back a day or two, but, as the boy said who suffered from the ill-effects of repletion, " It was wuth it."

* * *

So much has already been said in the trade journals on the subject of the Dinner, that I shall confine myself to the fewest remarks possible. Of course everybody knows now that the function was a triumph from start to finish. There were 97 guests present, and would have been upwards of a hundred but for the fact that a dense fog descended on the suburbs that evening, and some dared not venture to start, while others lost their way and had to return home dinnerless. But there was no fog inside the Criterion, but everything that was bright and warm and gay. The chief speech of the President, " Our Guests," was felicitous in the extreme, and from it the speeches which followed by the Editors of The Publishers' Circular and The Bookseller naturally took their hue. Then the members of the Fairyland Society, forty strong, gave an entertainment lasting upwards of two hours and a half, and variously described as " brilliant," " delightful," " unique," and " ripping." Two topical songs, written and composed by " Mr. Heff Kaigh," seemed to cause much amusement, but the portraits of well-known booksellers, drawn in sight of the audience, were the " hit " of the evening. After this a very fine photograph was taken of the scene, including the audience and the performers, and may be obtained from Messrs. Fradelle & Young, 283, Regent Street, W. A particularly-gratifying incident was the arrival of a telegram of congratulation in the middle of the proceedings, from twenty country booksellers who were attending a sale at Leeds.

* * *

The function has crowned the edifice of the S.H.B.A., and the Association commences the second year of its existence under the happiest possible auspices. Every bookseller in Gt. Britain should now join, and he will then receive the Annual Report, showing what the work of the Association has been during the first year; and every member, whether in town or country, who can manage to do so, should at once determine to share in the good things at next year's Dinner and Entertainment. Any bookseller possessing any special talent for doing things clever and amusing may communicate with me, and a note shall be made of his name. We all of us work on upwards of three hundred days of the year. Let us devote one day to unadulterated pleasure.

The gentleman who recently prophecied—the wish being father to the thought—that the S.H.B.A. would soon " fizzle out " is invited to express his opinion at the present time.

As every good B.A.R.-ite knows, the S.H.B.A. is one of my children. Its birth was suggested in the first part of B.A.R. issued in 1902, and was referred to again two years ago, but pressure of work prevented active steps being taken till December, 1906 ; and, besides, I was hoping all along that somebody of more importance than myself would act upon the suggestion. However, the main thing is that it now exists, and has been a success from the hour of its initiation. This success has of course been due to the loyal support given to the idea by Mr. Henry Stevens, Mr. Maggs, Mr. Leighton, and the other members of the Committee, to whom the trade as a whole are under a great debt of gratitude.

* * *

" The Song of the Association " was printed in two of the trade journals, and by request from many quarters I now give the other song sung by the Troglodyte. Of course half its effect is lost by the absence of the orchestra and chorus, but that cannot be helped. The song was prefaced by the following dialogue

Fairy Child. " Please, Piper, what are Troglodytes ! "

Piper. " Troglodytes, my child, are short-sighted persons who cannot see beyond the ends of their noses. Therefore they never prosper, and do nothing but moan all day."

Fairy Child. " I should like to hear one moan ! "

Piper. " Should you ! Then so you shall. Ho ! Troglodyte ! Come forth and moan ! " (Enter the Troglodyte).

SONG

I'm a troglodyte ! A weary troglodyte !
Yet once upon a time I was so gay
That I used to bid quite briskly when to Sotheby's I went,
And I syndicated all the livelong day.
But of late I've been so quiet and so sad,
That I feel I really dunno where I are ;
Something's happened ! And it's something pretty bad !
I know ! It's that confounded B.A.R. !

(Chorus).
He's a troglodyte ! A weary troglodyte !
His nerves are very much 'neath par ;
And we think that soon perhaps he will totally collapse
From agititis—B.A.R. ! (The Chorus tremble).

There were hundreds of us once ; we're now thirteen,
And diminishes each day that luckless number ;
Soon Number One alone there'll be—that's Me—
Excuse the grammar—only let me slumber !
I am pestered ev'ry day with something new ;
Propositions that my nerves shake up and jar ;
Things that worry sleepy mortals—make you jump ;
And they always emanate from B.A.R. !
(Chorus).

There's a band of B.A.R.-ites too, and they Ask constantly some query such as " Are
You really able to get on without it ?
You do surprise me ! " Dash that B.A.R. !
Let me seek a draught of something gentler far,
Whence nothing startling comes to give you fits ;
Such excursions and alarms as B.A.R.'s
Just shake this poor old troglodyte to bits !
(Chorus).

I'm a troglodyte ! A weary troglodyte !
There's always something comes my peace to mar ;
While I can I'll get a nap. (knock) Halloa ! there's the postman's rap !
(picks up envelope, opens it, and sings with disgust)
It's another circular from B.A.R. ! (The troglodyte rushes off).
(Chorus).

The extra plate issued with this Part reproduces the original sketches for some of the lightning-portraits drawn in front of the guests at the Dinner, and, having been made from life, unknown to the "sitters," they will I am sure possess great interest to the colleagues of the latter. . . .

A subscriber has been kind enough to send me The Pharmaceutical Journal for December 28, 1907. It contains an article on the preservation of books in hot climates, by Mr. Frank Browne, Government Analyst, Hong-kong. This may be of service to some foreign subscribers. . . . . .

Mr. T. Edwards Jones, 36, Burrell Road, Ipswich, has issued a common-place book entitled "Charity's Guerdon," price 1/6 net. The Commercial Travellers' Benevolent Institution will receive any profits accruing from its sale. The selections are excellent, and both paper and type are charming. The King accepted a copy

Subscribers who deal in rare and expensive books are advised to send their catalogues to Marsden J. Perry, Esq., Providence, Rhode Island, U.S.A. Mr. Perry was supposed by some to be the purchaser of Earl Howe's Shakespeare quartos. Catalogues should also be sent to Mr. E. K. Butler, 938 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., U.S.A. Mr. Butler deals in first editions of Lever, Dickens, Cruikshankiana, etc. If orders result they may be sent without further reference.

The address of Dr. Howard Furness is Linden Shade, Wallingford, Philadelphia, Pa., U.S.A. He buys books. Send him your catalogues.

The New York Nation, of Oct. 10, 1907, refers to the copy of Churchyarde's "Prayse and Reporte of Maister Martyne Froboisher's Voyage to Meta Incognita," London, 1578, sold at Sotheby's, March 16, 1907 (See B.A.R., vol. 4, page 217). It was described as being the first edition in English of Frobisher's first voyage. The Nation says, "In our own notes of the sale we fell into the same error ; for the book had never been reprinted and no copy was then known in America. Later, however, in examining the book itself, which is now owned by a private collector in New York, we discovered that the narrative indubitably referred, not to Frobisher's first voyage of 1576, but to the second of 1577, of which another and more authoritative account by Dionise Settle had been already printed. The earliest printed account of the voyage of 1576 is in George Beste's "Three Voyages for the Discoverie of a Passage to Cathaya by the North-west." As the volume realized £1,000 this information is worth making a note of.

It was by the bye, The Nation which said, on Oct. 10, 1907, as follows :—

"Almost simultaneously with Book Prices Current we receive Part 4 of its competitor Book-Auction Records, which in some respects deserves notice first. Book Prices Current is arranged chronologically by sales, and a reference to the index is absolutely necessary to find any particular record. The newer Book Auction Records is published quarterly, the lots in each number are arranged alphabetically, by authors, and an index to the entire volume is given with the fourth part. B.A.R. is a less pretentious publication. The transcripts of titles are more condensed, the book is printed in smaller type on poorer paper, and is offered at a lower price (£1 1s. against £1 7s. 6d.) ; its records are however much fuller. The volume just completed contains 15,131 records, more than twice as many as the older. As all such publications are primarily consulted for prices Mr. Karslake's record should recommend itself more generally to booksellers."

The Christmas No. of T.P.'s Weekly contained, on page 56, an article entitled "A Book Sale at Sotheby's," If not out of print it can be obtained from 15, Whitefriars Street, E.C.

It should be noted that the reason that the copy of "Waverley," recorded on page 119, realised so small a price was that vols. 1-2 had no imprint.

* * *

So many requests have been made by subscribers to print B.A.R. on as thin a paper as possible, in order to save weight and bulk, that effect has been given to the suggestion. Volume 5, as a whole, will therefore, perhaps look less imposing than volume 4, but the matter contained in it will not be less.

* * *

The majority of subscribers have probably seen and read the article on "The Makers of Books" in The Pall Mall Magazine, Nov., 1907. It deals, in most interesting fashion, with Bernard Quaritch and others, and is illustrated with portraits and views. Among the latter is a plate of the Ivy House Bookshop, owned by the veteran Mr. John Salkeld, and accompanied by a delightful anecdote of a Burns relic. Mr. Bertram Dobell also receives special appreciation, and the article is one that no bookseller, and no "bookish" man, should fail to possess.

* * *

Errata. The following humorous error appeared in Vol. 4, being of course reproduced from the sale catalogue. On page 409 a MS volume by Branwell Brontë is described as being written in a Minute Book of the "Haworth Operatic Conservatoire Society." It should have read "Haworth Operatives Conservative Society." The cataloguer probably wrote a bad hand, and does not use a typewriter. Also, on page 499 the "Comic Latin Grammar" was attributed to the authorship of A'Beckett instead of to that of Percival Leigh.

* * *

Whenever, through the mistake of a subordinate, or otherwise, errors are discovered in past volumes of B.A.R. they are pointed out, as they can be corrected by a stroke of the pen if subscribers will only take the trouble to do this. In the Index to Vol. 2, Pugin's "Ancient Timber Houses" is stated to be recorded on page 438. The correct page is 468. But it should always be borne in mind that if the Index is wrong the book can be found in a moment by referring to one of the four alphabets. Errors are indicated as a matter of policy, and in order to make B.A.R. more valuable as a work of reference. It is infinitely better than to pretend that there are no errors. I never yet met with a bibliographical work in which mistakes did not occur.

* * *

The five volumes of B.A.R. now in existence look so cheery in their bright red covers that one subscriber says he keeps the set on his desk, in front of him, and that they make him feel so warm that he forgets to put more coal on the fire! So here is another way in which the immortal publication adds to its usefulness. I shall have to increase the subscription on account of the saving in the bill for fuel. Of one thing I am certain, viz., that before many years are past complete sets are going to be far more valuable than the published price. Vol. 2 is within sight of being out of print, and will not be reprinted. Those who possess only broken sets will be wise to complete them while it is possible to do so. Binding cases are supplied for 1/3, post free.

There are scores of cancelled paragraphs lying on my desk, and until you are prepared to pay more than a guinea for B.A.R., they must remain there. You cannot get a quart into a pint pot.

——— J. & J. Leighton, 40, Brewer Street, Golden Square, W.—Catalogue of Early Printed and other Interesting Books, Manuscripts, etc., Part XIII. Cal. to Chr. The magnitude of this remarkable catalogue is attested by the fact that so small a section of the alphabet as Cal. to Chr. contains 282 entries, with such elaborate descriptions, and such a number of reproductions of book-illustrations, bindings, title-pages, printers' marks, etc., that the section occupies 207 pages. The perfection of the Catalogue puts it beyond praise, and it should be preserved and bound, when completed, by every lover of bibliographical rarities.

——— Neville & George, 39a, Harrington Road, S.W.—A Catalogue of Interesting and Desirable Books, Topography, Biography and History, First and Library Editions, with a Short Selection of Children's Books, Fine Arts, etc. Classification :—Topography and Travels (British and Foreign), Africa (with Egypt), America, Arctic, Australasia, England, Scotland, etc., Europe (with Alpine), India and the East. Addenda of Fine Arts, Music, Botany, Painting, Sculpture, etc. Messrs. Neville & George allow 15 % discount to the trade.

——— R. Rayson, 90, High Road, Chiswick, W.—Rayson's Book Compendium (No. 1), of Scarce, Curious and Rare Works, and useful, bright and readable literature, pleasant and desirable for the savant, the conversationalist, the worker, the flaneur, and the idler. Many of those quoted herein are from the dispersed libraries of the late Sir Henry Hawkins (Lord Brampton), Lord and Lady Warwick and other eminent previous owners. The prices are in all cases moderate in comparison to the excellence of the respective copies.
This is Mr. Rayson's first catalogue, and is an excellent start for a young beginner in bookselling. A Key is given to the abbreviations used, as also a Key to the sizes of books, in inches ; and these things show thought. A verse from Tennyson is on the cover ; and that shows fancy. The notes to the descriptions are to the point ; and that evidences perspicuity. All of which proves that Mr. Rayson should prosper.

BOOK-AUCTION RECORDS

Vol. 1, Part 1,

CONTAINING THE RECORDS FOR 1902-3

(Originally known as " Sale Records ")

RE-EDITED BY FRANK KARSLAKE

Will be ready in a few days. Subscribers will be duly informed.

This volume will contain 14,013 records, and instead of being arranged on the old and out-of-date plan of separate catalogues with an Index it will be in one alphabet only, thus permitting of instantaneous reference to any book, or to any number of copies of any book, which may be contained in it. It is hoped also that the numerous errors which disfigured the first edition will be found to have disappeared, thus making the volume worthy to take its place at the head of the publication.

No workman who desires to earn a living wage can do without efficient tools. This applies as much to bookselling and bibliography as it does to carpentering. The man who possesses the best tools makes the most money. This is why I personally recommend the acquisition of the above publication. It will repay its cost a hundredfold, for the reason that it furnishes the matter in a handy, get-at-able form, for tens of thousands of notes for catalogue descriptions. I have myself been cataloguing books for forty years, and can therefore appreciate the value of a work which gives exactly the information needed to make a book saleable, and at a moment's notice. The method of arrangement is as simple as that of B.A.R. itself. Each volume is in one alphabet, while at the end of Vol. 8 are two Indexes ; one an Index to Authors (26 pages), and an Index to Criticisms (166 pages). Thus if you wish to know everything personally, bibliographically, and critically respecting Alexander Pope, the Index refers you to Vol. 3, where you will find 51 pages devoted to him. If, on the other hand, you desire to learn who are the authorities who have written about and criticised Pope, the Index to Criticisms gives you no fewer than 85 names, with the volume and pages in the work at which their criticisms will be found. For the practical bookseller who wishes to sell his books by making his catalogue descriptions attractive I can imagine no greater aid and no more remunerative investment, and I know that if such a work had been in existence during my own period of cataloguing I should have regarded it as a gold-mine. Booksellers must remember also that the work will possess permanent commercial value, and that, after having used it for years "for all it is worth," they will still be able to dispose of it in the event of its services being no longer required. The economy of possessing it is, in short, so obvious, that no more need be said. Booksellers who think will at once order it ; those who do not think cannot be convinced by anything more that can be said.

As a bibliographical tool the work applies equally to Public Libraries and to Public Librarians. It is, in fact, a work that no Public Library can afford to be without, as it is the only source whence any extended knowledge of the inside history of our literature can be obtained for the long period (A.D. 680 to 1905) which it embraces in a continuous and trustworthy form. Two examples alone may be shown as evidence of the appreciation which the work has won in the United States. Every branch of the Philadelphia Public Library has a set on its shelves, and the New York Public Library has the work at twenty-five branches.

Therefore, I hope that every "live" bookseller, and every Public Library, will keep abreast of the bibliographical times by deciding to at once possess this aid to work.

A very charming little volume, particularly suitable for presentation.

Catalogue of the Truman Collection of Cruikshankiana (1421 Lots), with the Prices and Names neatly written within ruled lines, £1 1s.

As every bookseller knows, the Truman Collection was the most wonderful series of Cruikshankiana in existence, and its catalogue will be a permanent standard of reference. It contains not only books, but also rare pamphlets and chap-books, etchings, caricatures, broadsides, theatrical portraits, songs and music titles, lithographs, drawings, copper-plates, and wood-blocks. Many such items are extremely valuable when they occur, and of course, only the books are recorded in B.A.R.

KARSLAKE & Co., 35, Pond Street., Hampstead, N.W.

The Value of B.A.R. as an Advertising Medium can be gauged by the following facts:—One of the biggest Continental Firms of Booksellers wanted a permanent contract for a page of the cover. An application to a London dealer as to whether he intended continuing his advertisement brought the response, "I wouldn't be without it for anything!" So, if properly executed, the old adage, "Give us bold advertisement" answers, you see. Yet there are many whom we cannot get to realise that a pound or two per annum spent in B.A.R. is about the best investment possible for a dealer in second hand books.

en Smith's Patent and all about it.

During an experience of over 25 years with Librarians, Book-buyers Booksellers in many parts of the world, I have repeatedly had ght to my notice the want of a bookshelf fitting which would admit instantly, without trouble, being raised or lowered to any desired t, and in introducing the present simple device I shall be earning ıanks of every librarian and book-lover who adopts them. Their ı is their simplicity, no tool being necessary—merely the pressure umb and finger.

'hese supports can be fitted to existing shelving by the addition of ıch grooved ends and division, screwed to the existing uprights; ends can be fixed by anyone, being supplied by me ready to put up, supports to suit any width shelves from six inches upwards.

'housands are now in use in public and private libraries, book-' and stationers' shops.

r. G. GREGORY, one of the leading booksellers in the West of England, having y had his shop fronts re-fitted with them, says:

" These shelf supports are a marvel of simplicity, and ought to be known by bookseller and librarian throughout the kingdom.

They enable the window dresser to adjust his shelves to suit a row of any size

There are thus no gaps between the tops of one row of books and the shelf next ; this often enables the assistant to get in another whole row of books "

'he illustrations describe more fully the idea, but on receipt of a card be pleased to send a sample support and any further particulars desired.

'stimates furnished for library and shop s of any description.

Fix the Supports

ou simply place them in the groove fitted ıith ruled strips at the desired height; ompress the wedges with finger and thumb,

SO ☛

'hey then automatically fix themselves by ıe folding wedges impinging the sides of ıe groove,

THUS ☛

ıd there you are ready for the shelves.

THE NEW BUILDING FOR THE MITCHELL LIBRARY, GLASGOW.

Some Notes on the Early Printers, Publishers, and Booksellers of Glasgow, and Remarks on its Public and Private Libraries. by Adam Smail, 11, St. Patrick Square, Edinburgh.

ALTHOUGH Glasgow is now the Second City of the British Empire, it was comparatively late in introducing the Art of Printing. From "A List of Books printed in Scotland before 1700," by Harry G. Aldis, University Library, Cambridge, issued by the Edinburgh Bibliographical Society in 1904, we find that the first book printed in Glasgow appeared in 1638. It was entitled "The Protestation of the Generall Assemblie of the Church of Scotland, etc." (28-9 November, 1638), 4to., and came from the Press of George Anderson. He began business in Edinburgh, in 1637, but in the autumn of 1638, apparently by invitation of the Town Council, removed to Glasgow, where he died in 1647. In 1639 he published "A cleare form of Catechising," by Zachary Boyd. This famous writer was the author of books in theology and poetry, which were issued from 1628 to 1648. His best-known book is "The last battell of the soule in death." It was published in 1628, by the Heirs of Andro Hart, Edinburgh, in one volume, 8vo. Being rather bulky in that form, it was re-issued in two volumes in the following year, with new titles and some additional prefatory matter. Dr. David Laing's copy sold for £52 10s "The Holy Songs" forming part of The Garden of Zion (Glasgow, G. Anderson, 1647) and "The Psalmes . . . . in meeter" appeared in 1648. The heirs of G. Anderson (his widow and children) issued this volume, and in 1649 they removed to Edinburgh.

From 1625 to 1699, twenty-four names are detailed in Mr. Aldis's List, fifteen described as booksellers, and one as Bibliopolorum Typographicum. R. Sanders flourished 1661-94 and R. Sanders & Co., from 1695 to 1730. Seven booksellers appear under 1676, but one only, I. Brown is heard of afterwards. In 1685, he sold Paterson (Jas.) "The Scots Arithmetician."

Andrew Anderson, who succeeded his father, removed from Edinburgh to Glasgow about July, 1657, by invitation of the Town Council, who offered him a yearly pension of 100 marks (about £5 11s. sterling). He returned to Edinburgh in the summer of 1661, and died in June, 1676.

He was succeeded by Robert Sanders, who styled himself Printer to the City, and who was for many years the only printer in the West of Scotland. He died about 1696 and was succeeded by his son, Robert Sanders, "of Auld House" A few of the works first printed by him were tolerably executed, but his later productions are extremely paltry and inaccurate. Printing at that time and for some years afterwards was in the lowest state in Scotland.

In 1831, Mr. Richard Duncan presented to the President and Members of the Maitland Club, a volume entitled "Notices and Documents illustrative of the Literary History of Glasgow, during the greater part of last (the 18th) Century." The author was Mr. William J. Duncan, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh, who died in 1885. This Work includes "Notices regarding the History of Printing in Glasgow Catalogue of Books printed by Robert and Andrew Foulis, and Notices regarding their Academy and Catalogue of Pictures done at the Academy in the University of Glasgow. Seven original papers form an Appendix of some importance. The first contains "Proposals for erecting a Bookseller's Shop and a Printing Press within the University of Glasgow" [1713].

"In order to have the University well accommodated with books, and a printing press, It is proposed that before the next sessions of the College there shall be a well-furnish'd shop erected, with books of all sorts, paper, paper-books, pens ink, ink-horns, sealing wax, and all other things sold either in a bookseller's or stationer's shop, as also that sometime within four years after Whitsunday next, there shall be a printing press erected. with necessary funts, and other materials for printing Heb.: Greek, and Latin, upon the conditions and manner after specified. Viz.: 1, That the Undertaker shall be immediately declared University bookseller and printer, and that all the privileges, immunitys, and advantages which the University can bestow on a bookseller or printer shall be assigned to the sd (said) undertaker and his assegneys whatsomever, and that for 40 years. 2ly. That a convenient shop and warehouse within the College be allowed gratis to the sd undertaker, and that the sd shop shall be floored with dales and shelves, tables, a brace and chimney, and large chace window putt in it at the Expense of the University. 3ly, That when the Printing press shall be erected the University furnish a convenient printing house, and for laying up books printed and drying the paper, etc. 4ly. [deleted]. 5. That the undertaker be obliged either to erect the press within the time above mentioned, or forfeit his privileges of bookseller and printer.

"An Agreement between the College of Glasgow and Donald Govane, yor. (younger or junior) was signed by the principals and professors, and Donald Govane Junr., on the 10th January, 1715, by which the latter was nominated, constituted and appointed printer to the University for seven years. He was furnished with two chambers, a cellar for coals, and a garret in the steeple for drying his paper, or rooms as convenient for the said use. He bound himself to furnish and keep up two presses for printing, with all necessary materials for printing Latin, Greek, Hebrew and Chaldee (at least so many of the latter as are needful to print a small grammar), together with sufficient and skilful correctors and workmen to serve in the printing house. One of the presses was to be at the service of every member of the University in preference to any other whatsoever. Outsiders we presume had to stand aside if the press was needed for University work or for its members, who were to be served at the ordinary rate. For this press, three setters of letters (compositors) at least were to be ready if required. Sufficient founts of English, pica, and small pica were to be kept to set two sheets of print in English or Latin. A copy of each book printed by him was to be supplied to the University Library. "Programs" and other advertisements for the use of the University were to be printed gratis to members who were to furnish the paper. A penalty of 1,000 merks Scots money (about £55 11s. 4d. sterling), was to be incurred in case of his failure to fulfil these stipulations."

The first newspaper published in Glasgow appeared in November, 1715, and was entitled The Glasgow Courant, changed at the fourth number to The West Country Intelligence. It was issued on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday of each week. Advertisements were taken in at either the Printing House in the College, or Post Office. The retail price was three half-pence, "but for encouragement to subscribers," one penny. The size was small quarto (each paper containing twelve pages). The set in the College Library extends to the 67th number, dated 1st of May, 1716. The contents embraced extracts from foreign journals and London newspapers, private letters, and occasional poetry, with very little local intelligence, although gentlemen in the principal towns in Scotland were desired to send by post any news they had, "and especially Sea-port Towns to advise what ships come in or sail off from those Parts."

In July, 1741, Andrew Stalker began The Glasgow Journal, of which he was editor. The earlier portion has not been preserved, but the numbers from 1745 to 1749 have been recovered. The stirring period which included the Jacobite rising in favour of "Bonnie Prince Charlie," caused the editor much anxiety, and prevented him from giving a true and candid detail of the events then occurring. He omitted several of the most important facts in the history of the Rebellion, and on October14th 1745, he stated "I cannot with safety publish so as to please the generality of my readers." He resigned the editorship to Mr. Urie, but continued as publisher. Urie's name was suppressed after October 21.

Urie continued to print very extensively in Glasgow, and is entitled to the credit of restoring the status of its press. Among the finest specimens of his work, are his editions of the Greek Testament, and of "The Spectator." He died February 9th, 1771.

Robert Foulis, was born in or near Glasgow, April 20th, 1707, and his brother Andrew, November 23rd, 1712. The former was apprenticed to a barber, and while in that situation Dr. Frances Hutcheson, Professor of Moral Philosophy in the University, discovered in him that talent which was afterwards cultivated with so much success. He suggested to him the idea of becoming a bookseller and printer, and for several years Robert attended his generous patron's lectures as a preparation for his future employment. After acquiring by travel and research, and by meeting with persons of considerable scientific attainments, a pretty accurate knowledge of books, Robert began business as a bookseller at Glasgow in 1741. The first productions of his press appeared in 1742. Messrs. Wilson & Baine executed fonts of type upon the models of Robert Stephens as being the most elegant. Foulis was assisted in the correction of his press by Professors Ross and Moor. He was appointed University Printer, 31st March, 1743. His " immaculate " edition of " Horace. ' issued in 1744 contains at least six typographical errors. By 1746 he had printed eighteen different classics, besides Dr. Hutcheson's class-books, in English and Latin. In 1751, Robert went abroad for the fourth time with a younger brother, and remained nearly two years. In Holland they exchanged books of their own printing in Greek, Latin and English, presumably with the Dutch printers and publishers.

It may be interesting to note that from 1742 to 1765 Messrs. R. & A. Foulis issued 342 works, of which the titles are given under the various years, and other minor books, of which the dates have not been ascertained. The paper used during the twenty-four years amounted to 3,148 reams and 11 quires of fine foolscap, on which a drawback or deduction of 1s. per ream was made, 1,809 reams of paper (second foolscap, fine and second pot, fine crown, fine and second demy), and 22 reams of treasury post were also used, with drawbacks of amounts varying from 9d. to 1s. 6d. per ream.

Mr. Harvock, secretary to the Earl of Northumberland, wrote on December 20, 1753 ; " Correct printing, in an elegant form, is, I own, both laborious and expensive, but then it has an intrinsic merit which stamps a value upon it and the printer to future ages ; and the book must be esteemed as long as reading is in fashion . . . . Print for posterity and prosper."

This aim appears to have been steadily kept in view. In 1755 the Select Society of Edinburgh had offered the honorary reward of a Silver Medal for the best printed and most correct books " of at least ten sheets which shall be produced within a limited time." In April, 1756, Messrs. Foulis were the winners with their folio edition of the " Hymns of Callimachus." In 1757, they were again successful with " Horace" (third edition), and Homer's " Iliad " 2 vols., fcap. folio. The latter is well known as one of the finest classics ever produced. In 1758, the medal was again obtained for the brothers' edition of Homer's " Odyssey," and in 1759, for their edition of his minor works. Their only successful rivals were Messrs. Hamilton, Balfour and Neill, of Edinburgh, who gained a prize in 1758 for their edition of " Terence." About 1757–8 Robert Foulis became acquainted with William Richardson, Esq., afterwards Professor of Humanity, in the bookshop within the precincts of the College. It was resorted to by students wishful to talk about or see books. " Gray's Poems," 4to., edited by Dr. Beattie, appeared in 1768, and " Milton's Poems " folio, published by subscription, was issued in 1770. About this time their prosperity declined, and their Academy of the Fine Arts was dissolved after the death of Andrew, September 18th, 1775. The pictures were sold by auction in London at a great sacrifice. Robert died in Edinburgh, June 2nd, 1776. The affairs of the firm were left in a state of insolvency owing to the lack of sufficient support, and also to the cost incurred in carrying on the art department, which included the publication of prints from the plates in their possession. It is to be regretted that the family of Robert Foulis was left in almost complete destitution. Their affairs were finally wound up in 1781 by Robert Chapman, printer, and James Duncan, bookseller in Glasgow. Their debts amounted to rather more than £6,500, and nearly the whole of the stock was purchased by Mr. John Spottiswoode, of Edinburgh.

The imprints of books published in Glasgow throw some light on the printers and booksellers, and the localities in which their places of business were situated. " True Christian Love, to bee sung with any of the Common Tunes of the Psalmes " [by D. Dickson], was printed by I. W[reittoun] for John Wilson and are to be sould at his shop in Glasgow, 1634. This is believed to have been printed at Edinburgh, and to be the earliest book bearing the Glasgow imprint. A copy of this rare book is in the Mitchell Library. " The Second Part of the Pilgrim's Progress," was " Printed by Robert Sanders, and are to be sold in his Shop, a little above the Grammar-School Wynd, 1717." The following may be quoted as an example of the quaint titles of the early part of the 18th century. "Stevenson (John, Land-labourer) A Rare Soul Strengthening and Comforting Cordial for Old and Young Christians," Glasgow: Printed by James Duncan, and are to be sold at his shop in the Salt-market, near Gibson's Wynd, 1729. "Brooks (Thomas) The Mute Christian under the Smarting Rod. Glasgow-College, Printed by Alexander Miller, and are to be sold at his Shop, opposite the Well in the Salt-mercat, 1738." "Brown (John, Minister of the Gospel in Haddington) The Young Christian (a Series of 11 Short Biographies) was issued in 1782, Printed by John Bryce, And Sold at his Shop Salt-Market (opposite Gibson's Wynd)." The books were sold in wholesale or retail. A list of eighteen books in octavo is appended, all theological, except Watts' Logick. It includes Mr. Ralph Erskine's Works in 10 large vols. and "Ridgley's Body of Divinity," in folio. It is interesting to find among "Articles to be had stitched," "Borland's History of Darien." Among other items are Bibles gilt and plain, New Testaments, Psalm Books, Confessions of Faith, Catechisms large and small (Brown's and seven others are named), Proverbs, Watts' Songs for Children, Paper and Pens, Letter Cases and Pocket Books, etc., etc.

A 12mo. pamphlet of 24 pages is noteworthy. It is entitled "A True and Exact Double of Two Papers, Exchanged betwixt some of the Reverend Ministers of the City of Glasgow, and the Members of that which is called the General Session there. Glasgow: Printed by James Duncan, Printer to the City, 1721." It is set up with many words in capitals (General Session occurs in the text 57 times), numerous words are in italics of various styles, and the title-page with border and ornamental headings and tail-pieces make the brochure interesting. The paper is good. Duncan's shop was in the Salt market, in 1729. It was a favourite locality with the printers.

It would be difficult to compress into moderate compass notices of the many printers and publishers of the 18th and 19th centuries, whose efforts reflect credit on the city in which they lived and laboured.

A useful book for readers of B.A.R. is entitled "Public and Private Libraries of Glasgow" by Thomas Mason, Librarian of the Stirling's and Glasgow Public Library, Glasgow: 1884. It forms an octavo volume of 448 pages, in large and clear type. The copious index occupies pp. 433–448, and supplies an excellent guide to the rare and valuable books, autographs, MSS., etc. The works deserving special attention will be found under Boyd (Rev. Zachary); Burns (Robert); Byron (Lord); Glasgow (books relating to); Henry the Minstrel's Wallace; James VI.; Knox (John); Laing (David); Maidment (James); Marie Stuart Queen of Scots; Motherwell (William); Pinkerton (John); Ritson (Joseph); Ruskin (John); Scotland (Collections of Books relating to); Scott (Sir Walter); Shakespeare (William); Tennyson (Lord).

The Public Libraries described are Stirling's and Glasgow Public Library, and the Mitchell Library. The Euing Musical Library occupies Chapter XII., and some drastic remarks are made regarding its defects and the difficulty of obtaining access to its contents.

The private libraries noticed are those of Professor Ferguson, George Gray, James Wyllie Guild, George Wingate Hill, Alexander Macdonald, Bernard B. Macgeorge, Alexander Bennett, McGregor, LL.D., Thomas Adam Matheson, James Barclay Murdoch, Thomas Russell, M.P., Mathew Shields, John Wordie and Alexander Young, Esquires.

In his interesting introduction Mr. Mason states that "There are scores of libraries in the city worthy of description, and had the object been to compile a statistical report, every private and public library would have found a place in the volume. . . . The total number of books in the private libraries will not come far short of 70,000 . . . The industries of the city, its wonderful growth, its quarrels, and its merry meetings, its amusements, its eminent men, its literature and art, and every phase of its life, are copiously illustrated by the literary stories of its citizens."

A specially interesting collection to book-lovers, is that of Mr. B. B. Macgeorge, which in the departments of fine art, Blake, Ruskin, and Meryon is specially rich. The Blake Section includes Lord Beaconsfield's collection with a few volumes from the Beckford Library. The Book of Job, large paper, proof plates, Blair's Grave, plates in two states, prints and proofs before letters, are tempting items. A holograph letter and poem from Blake "To my Dearest Friend, John Flaxman, 12th Sept., 1800," is surely a treasure. The Ruskin Collection, Mr. Mason says, is probably as large as any in existence, numbering altogether over two hundred volumes and pamphlets. The library also contains a magnificent collection of Meryon's etchings, in the earliest and subsequent states, many of them unique, First Editions of Byron, Shelley, Tennyson, Scott, Rossetti, and other poets. The prose writers are described minutely, and it may be mentioned for the benefit of B.A.R. subscribers that many valuable hints regarding rariora will be found throughout Mr. Mason's monograph. Regarding Shelley's "Queen Mab," privately printed in 1813, it is stated that the title page so often wanting, was taken out by Shelley himself, to avoid prosecution for the sentiments given utterance to in the book.

The Mitchell Library and a series of District Libraries are administered by the Corporation of the City. The Lord Provost is ex officio President of Stirling's Library and three members of the Corporation are sent as Directors. Mr. Stephen Mitchell (b. 1789, d. 1874), was a tobacco manufacturer in Linlithgow, from thence he removed to Glasgow in 1825. A bequest of the residue of his estate to the Town Council for the formation of a large public library in Glasgow, with all the modern accessories connected therewith, produced the magnificent sum of £66,998 10s. 6d. The Library, worth about 15,000 volumes, was opened to readers in temporary premises, on 5th November, 1877, and 186 volumes were issued on that day. It increased rapidly, as the following table shows :—

1880	...	33,000	1895	...	120,000
1885	...	62,000	1900	...	142,000
1890	...	87,000	1904	...	160,000

In extent, variety, and value, the library now takes rank with the chief reference libraries in the Kingdom. The removal to the premises in Miller Street took place in 1891, and on the 7th October of that year, it was reopened by the late Marquess of Bute, who delivered an appropriate address. It includes many books and papers relating to Glasgow in all its interests, editions of Burns and Scottish poetry, and generally of Scottish literature in all departments. Large collections of pamphlets on many subjects, and of periodical publications have also been formed, and will be found of the utmost value as works of reference. About a third of the volumes have been presented by generous friends and well wishers, together with bequests of money. The Jeffrey Reference Library, containing over 4,000 volumes, includes works of high value and great rarity. Natural history, especially ornithology ; the antiquities of Greece, Rome, and other countries, and various branches of the fine arts are specially worthy of notice. The new building for the Mitchell Library is now nearing completion. A view of this handsome edifice, which is situated immediately to the east of the St. Andrews Hall, is given as a frontispiece to this article. The dimensions are 190 feet by 105 feet, the longer being north and south.

Many important works have been issued within recent years from the University and other presses in Glasgow. Among these may be mentioned "Old Country Houses of the Glasgow Gentry," Archæological and Fine Art Catalogues in connection with the Exhibition ; Macdonald's Catalogue of Coins in the Hunterian Museum, illustrated, 3 vols., 4to. Others might be named if space would permit. The publications of Messrs. James MacLehose & Sons, Printers and Publishers to the University, are distinguished by good taste and careful workmanship. Other booksellers and publishers deserve to be mentioned : Messrs. Hugh Hopkins, Robert Forrester, J. P. Forrester, John Smith & Sons, Kerr & Richardson, etc.

The subject may be viewed from various standpoints, and requires careful and painstaking study. The printers, publishers, and booksellers of the past accomplished much good and useful work and their efforts are worthy of honourable mention. The history and antiquities of St. Mungo have been dealt with in the histories of McUre, 1736 ; Gibson, 1777 ; Brown, 1795 ; Denholm, 1797 ; Cleland, Chapman, circa 1820 ; Wade, 1822 ; Pagan, 1847 ; "Glasgow, Past and Present," 1851–84, by Senex ; Mackenzie, 1865 ; Gordon, 1872 ; etc. The arts and crafts are well represented in the History of Incorporation of Masons, Cordiners, and Maltmen, 1879–95. The antiquities and archaeology of the City and its environs, its social, municipal and collegiate life have been adequately treated by many competent authorities.

There is no lack of material for studying the past and present life of the City. This brief and imperfect sketch will, it may be hoped, direct attention to aspects of literature which differ widely from the frivolous and ephemeral stuff that bulks so largely in the estimation of the public in this enlightened twentieth century. The City of St. Mungo has good reason to be proud of its printers, publishers, and booksellers, who have helped to embody " thoughts that breathe and words that burn " in fitting form, and thus realise the spirit of the City's motto: " Let Glasgow flourish," with the addition, sometimes forgotten, " by the preaching of the Word."

COLLOQUIALISMS

The following is the name of an American book-buyer to whom catalogues should be sent :—Mrs. J. H. Aldrich, 150 West 59th Street, New York City.

The above name is one of 150 names of genuine buyers of valuable books, residing in New York and other cities of the United States. It is not one of those numerous lists which are " faked " from lists of learned societies, and which are absolutely useless to the antiquarian bookseller, but every name is that of a collector of the present day. The list costs £2. It is a big price for so small a list, but it is high because it is worth that sum. Eighteen of the names are those of buyers who spent, each of them, upwards of £100 in one year with one American firm alone, and those names are marked with an asterisk. I happen to know that one subscriber to B.A.R. who purchased the list received recently one order alone for £28, and another subscriber received orders of £10 and other amounts. There is also the satisfaction of knowing that the names are in all cases those of responsible persons, and that no reference is needed with the orders. Such a list may repay the purchaser a hundredfold, as it is a most exceptional opportunity for adding to the resources of business. Its cost is a fleabite compared to the general expenses of a twelvemonth, and its use goes far towards providing for these expenses. Anyone in such a position as mine is able to form a better opinion as to the methods for conducting business successfully than perhaps any individual bookseller can. Some of my subscribers are highly prosperous ; others say that the trade is going to the dogs. What I find is that the prosperous ones do not rely upon local business, but send out their catalogues world-wide, and when nothing is doing in one quarter orders are coming in from another. The man with merely a local trade is nowhere in these days. You must cast your nets wide and far if you would be fishers of customers. This necessitates the possession of the names of real buyers. They exist, and it is not difficult to obtain their names. Even if only as a matter of policy I want all subscribers to B.A.R. to prosper, because they can then pay their bills promptly.

" It moves " murmured Galileo, after the Pope and the cardinals had made him forswear himself. So, like the earth, the Association moves. It is no longer " The Second-hand Booksellers Association," but has become "The International Association of Antiquarian Booksellers." At the inaugural meeting the term " Antiquarian " was suggested, but I voted against it because, in my opinion, the pear was not ripe. " Second-hand " had been the colloquial phrase for I don't know how many years. If the new Association had at once attempted to introduce the term " Antiquarian " many booksellers would probably have been deterred from joining, on the ground that the innovation was " new fangled." But now that the Association has become an " International " one all that has changed. Upon the continent of Europe " Antiquariat " means a dealer in books which are not new. Now, old and scarce books enter into the category of curios, and you never hear of " second-hand " silver, of " second-hand " lace, of " second-hand " pictures, or of " second-hand " objets d'art." But you do hear of second-hand clothes, and a frowsy association pertains to them. And since literature is perhaps, next to morals, the highest thing in life, there is no reason why it should remain permanently associated with cast-off wearing apparel. This was the chief reason that caused a unanimous vote at a Special General Meeting for the change of title.

Members of the Committee are being elected in the principal cities of Europe and the United States, and before a twelvemonth has elapsed we have reason to believe that the Association will have representatives in almost every part of the world.

It shows to what extent an idea that obsesses you may get on your brain when I tell you that one night I dreamt that the Association was having a big banquet somewhere in London, with Abraham Lincoln in the chair! And I distinctly remember him taking me aside before the proceedings commenced, and asking to prompt him as to the line he ought to take in his opening speech. Was it the salmon or the cucumber, I wonder, that was the more indigestible on the evening that preceded that dream!

In the article on Exeter Mr. Harry Manley was omitted from the list of booksellers of that city. This omission was caused by the fact that Mr. Manley had to remove from his shop to temporary premises which possess no shop window. The business was established 28 years ago, and is at present at 3 St. Mary Arches Street. Mr. Manley adds that one of the conveniences of having no open shop is that he now has the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the inside as well as the outsides of the old, out-of-the-way, and curious books in which he deals.

The Bellman of Mar. 14 contains an account of the bookshop of Mr. Edmund D. Brooks, 89 Tenth Street South, Minneapolis, U.S.A. Mr. Brooks being a "live" bookseller he of course subscribes to B.A.R., and all other subscribers should send their catalogues to him, and when he sends orders they need not wait for a reference. The article in question is a highly-appreciative one, but the most eloquent testimony of all consists of two plates of Mr. Brooks's book-rooms. They are as far removed from an ideal English bookshop as is Alpha from Omega. They might well represent the interiors of libraries of wealthy men of culture in old English houses. On the floors are handsome carpets. In the centre are long and heavy oaken tables. The ceilings are supported by cross-beams. Round the walls are both glazed and open book cases. Easy chairs dot the open spaces. Over the quaint brick fireplace is hung a portrait of Tennyson. There is, in fact an air of quiet and repose which must tempt booklovers to linger and examine the treasures which abound. By all means send Mr. Brooks your catalogues. He will buy what is worth having.

There is just room to squeeze in something apart from business. It is a curious sensation that is caused by turning out old drawers and lighting upon some reminiscence of events that had sunk into the limbo of the Past. I had such an experience the other day, and came across some lines written from California to a friend who was a wholesale chemist, and whose catalogue of drugs had been sent me. I had not seen the effusion for 14 years, and as it made me laugh perhaps it will make you laugh also, if only at my folly in printing it. Here it is:—

CHEMICAL CACCHINATION

Hydro-bromides or Vibronas, Itrosyls or other drugs!
  Shall we talk about Cinchonas, grown in land that once bred Thugs?
Thermo-Hydrometer (really much I'm puzzled; what is that?)
  Autometric-stopper (this is just enough to kill a cat!)
Centigrade and Fahrenheit scales; Ethel's Nitrite (Oh! my eye!)
  Pharmapeutics! Therapeutics! (if this goes on I shall die!)
Cincho-tannic, Kinic acids, Kinovic, Cinchona Bark;
  Hydroclorics, Liquid Extracts and Sulphurics; (what a lark!)
Here you are! They're highly healthy. Come to California quick,
  If you're poor we'll make you wealthy, and we'll cure you if you're sick.

* * *

What's the good of living if you can't laugh sometimes?

The activity of this firm in the matter of the production of catalogue after catalogue is phenomenal, and probably accounts for its position among Canadian booksellers. Some dealers do not realize that if a catalogue " falls flat " that is just the reason why another should be rushed out at once. The next is as likely as not to " strike ile."

 Catalogues received since going to press will be noticed in Part 4.

DICKENS

An Original Oil Painting

Being an Unknown Full-length Portrait of

CHARLES DICKENS at the age of 6 in the dress of the period; the sea in the far distance, and probably painted at Chatham in the year 1818. On the back of the canvas in a contemporary hand, is the inscription, in faded ink, "Master Charles Dickens," followed by the date, 18—, the remainder being illegible. Lower down are the name and address of the colourman who sold the canvas. Upon the wooden frame, still lower, is the following in Indian ink, "Aged 6 yrs." The frame is of the same period; it was originally gilt, and has since, many years ago, been painted a dull olive green. The size of the painting is 20 ins by 16. The frame is 3 inches deep. £50

 This portrait possesses for all admirers of Dickens the especial interest of being the first known portrait of him. It has been compared with reproductions of other early portraits of Dickens, and the distinctive characteristics of the open, smiling countenance, and the flowing, curly hair, are very marked. The painting has been submitted to Mr. Percy Fitzgerald, and he permits it to be stated that it bears a most striking resemblance to Dickens's grandchildren, and especially to one in particular. Mr. Fitzgerald also considers the fact that the painting is not of the highest class of art as being distinctly favourable to its claim to be the earliest known portrait of Dickens, since the novelist's parents were not at that time in a position to employ an artist of eminence; but he is of opinion that it is in all probability a very faithful portrait of Dickens at that age.

KARSLAKE & Co.

35, POND STREET, HAMPSTEAD, LONDON, N.W.

TO PUBLIC LIBRARIANS, and others. FOR SALE:

The Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors

Edited by CHARLES WELLS MOULTON

Assisted by a Corps of Able Contributors, 8 vols., super imp., 8vo., strongly bound in cloth, top edges gilt, New York, 1901-1905. Price £8.

The notice of Public Librarians is particularly directed to this work. It consists of eight volumes, of 800 pages each, together with 250 portraits. The plan of the work is as follows:—

VOLUME I.	Period 680–1638	VOLUME V.	Period 1825–1854
VOLUME II.	Period 1639–1729	VOLUME VI.	Period 1855–1874
VOLUME III.	Period 1730–1784	VOLUME VII.	Period 1875–1890
VOLUME IV.	Period 1785–1824	VOLUME VIII.	Period 1891–1904

Indexes to authors and to critics—200 pages—in Volume VIII.

Nearly a quarter of a century has been devoted by Mr. Moulton and his co-labourers to the building of this work.

It presents, in chronological order, scholarly studies of the lives and works of all authors who have made significant contribution to English literature, from the beginning in the seventh century up to nineteen hundred and four.

All worthy criticism of the works of these authors through the successive centuries, together with interesting facts illustrative of the lives and times, garnered from over 30,000 volumes, form the material of which these studies are composed, space being allotted in each case in accordance with the author's importance in general, and the particular importance of each work.

The original text is adhered to in all cases, and the source from which it comes is accurately given—the assembled data and criticisms forming, practically, the verdict on each author's works, by a jury of his peers.

The most complete and most authentic history of the literature of the English language.

An unrivalled compendium of literary criticism and literary bibliography, and the only exponent of the evolution of the art of literary criticism.

A most valuable time-saver to the literary worker, librarian, teacher, student, and man of letters generally, presenting in collected and readily-available form, material of fundamental value that can otherwise be obtained only through long and laborious research.

These estimates, by the great masters of expression, are themselves literature of a very high order.

It does not duplicate any other work.

The following Public Libraries in Great Britain already possess "The Library of Literary Criticism":—

Birmingham Free Library, Brighton Public Library, Chelsea Public Library, Croydon Public Library, St. David's College Library, Lampeter, Leeds Public Library, British Museum, Manchester Public Library, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Sheffield Public Library, Swansea Public Library, Edinburgh University, and Mitchell Library at Glasgow.

Also an immense number of Public Libraries in the United States have subscribed for it. The Philadelphia Public Library for instance, has the work at every one of its branches, and the New York Public Library has the work at more than twenty-five branches. It should, in fact, be in every Public Library in the World. Every librarian, every editor, and every journalist would find the work invaluable, and we do not hesitate to say that a set ought to be in the editorial office of every publishing house.

APPRECIATIONS OF

"THE LIBRARY OF LITERARY CRITICISM"

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

"I am immensely pleased with my eight volumes of 'Literary Criticism of English and American Authors.'

One would travel far to find so complete a compendium of all that is best in this peculiar field of research. The exhaustive collection of contemporaneous and modern critics of Shakespeare should settle for ever 'The Bacon Controversy,' and is worth many times the cost of the edition."

(Signed) JUNIUS L. HEMPSTEAD.

TOLEDO, OHIO.

(To Mr. Moulton).

"It is a noble contribution to English literature, and will prove of inestimable value to every private and public library. Accept my warmest congratulations, and I hope that your immense labours may be abundantly appreciated."

(Signed) KATE BROWNLEE SHERWOOD.

(Author of "Campfire and Memorial Day, and other Poems.").

149, Brattle St., CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

"This 'Library' is very wholesome and stimulating, and a good corrective, since it helps us to form a judgment by noting the average of sentiment concerning the writers and thinkers of the past. It must ever be the delight or the despair of the critical mind."

(Signed) CHAS. WARREN STODDARD.

IOWA STATE LIBRARY, Des Moines, Iowa.

The more I familiarize myself with the work, the more valuable I find it as a working tool in our reference library. Not only do I find it convenient to refer others to the work, but I myself am frequently driven to its pages for information which is not obtainable, or not easily found, elsewhere.

(Signed) JOHNSON BRIGHAM, State Librarian.

INDIANAPOLIS (IND.) PUBLIC LIBRARY.

I have used your "Library of Literary Criticism" and thousands of our patrons have profited by its helpfulness. We have nothing with which to replace it, should we be deprived of it.

(Signed) E. G. BROWNING, Librarian.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, Worcester, Mass.

"I regard the 'Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors' as one of the most useful books of reference in our library. I believed in the idea from the first and have nothing but praise for the way in which it has been carried out. For the young especially the work seems to me of the greatest value; it gives them help just where they need it."

(Signed), E. H. RUSSELL, Principal.

COLBY COLLEGE, Waterville, Me.

"The excellence of the first volume of the 'Library of Literary Criticism' has been maintained in the succeeding volumes and we now have accessible in most convenient form the opinions of practically all the essayists and critics concerning every author of note in our literature.

The value of such a work to every student of English and to all libraries which aim to instruct in literature cannot be too highly estimated."

(Signed) EDWARD W. HALL, Librarian.

AMHERST COLLEGE, Amherst, Mass.

"We have found the work a valuable addition to our resources. The plan is an admirable one, and it has been carried out with a painstaking industry and an editorial acumen worthy of hearty recognition."

(Signed) W. I. FLETCHER, Librarian.

Re OSCAR WILDE deceased

Dear Sir,

As the Administrator of the estate and effects of the late Mr. Oscar Wilde my attention has been called to the very large number of unauthorised prints of the Author's Works being offered for sale in various parts of London and the country at the present time.

I am well aware that for some years subsequent to the late Mr. Wilde's death in 1900, and prior to my appointment as Administrator of his estate in 1906, no steps were taken by the proper authorities to put a stop to the production and sale of these unauthorised prints; and I have no doubt that many of the prints in question have been offered for sale and otherwise dealt in by various members of the book trade in all good faith and under the belief that they were acting within their rights.

The sale of these unauthorised issues of Mr. Wilde's Works affects prejudicially the interest of the estate I represent and the interests of Messrs. Methuen and other Publishers entitled to issue the authorised editions. I have been advised that I should now take the necessary steps to put an end to the sale of these unauthorised prints.

I am therefore issuing this circular to the many members of the book trade, who have, I am convinced, been acting in good faith in the matter of these sales, as a caution that in the event of their being found from this time forward offering for sale or otherwise dealing in any unauthorised prints of the late Mr. Wilde's Works legal proceedings will be at once taken to prevent their doing so.

Herewith you will find Mr. Stuart Mason's memorandum of the authorised editions which may be sold in the United Kingdom.—I remain, 15, Vicarage Gardens, Your obedient servant,

iii. Bearing the words Privately Printed or Issued for Subscribers Only, or any similar expression;

MAY BE IMPORTED INTO OR OFFERED FOR SALE WITHIN THE UNITED KINGDOM

NOTE

The only authorised reprints of the following are to be obtained in the COLLECTED EDITION of the Works issued by Messrs. Methuen.

CHILDREN IN PRISON, the case of Warder Martin, some Cruelties of Prison Life.
THE DUCHESS OF PADUA. A tragedy in blank verse.
ESSAYS, CRITICISMS AND REVIEWS (reprinted from "The Woman's World.")
FOUR LETTERS. Omitted from the first English version of DE PROFUNDIS.
THE HARLOT'S HOUSE. A poem.
LECTURE ON THE ENGLISH RENAISSANCE.
L'ENVOI. An Introduction to ROSE-LEAF AND APPLE-LEAF.
PHRASES AND PHILOSOPHIES FOR THE USE OF THE YOUNG.
POEMS IN PROSE.
THE PORTRAIT OF MR. W. H.
THE RISE OF HISTORICAL CRITICISM.
VERA; OR THE NIHILISTS.

Opportunity is here taken of drawing the attention of booksellers to the fact that the following books—THE PRIEST AND THE ACOLYTE,
THE SATYRICON OF PETRONIUS (a translation from the Latin),
WHAT NEVER DIES (a translation from the French),
(even when bearing his name on the title-page) were neither written, translated, nor edited by the late Mr. OSCAR WILDE, and booksellers are earnestly requested to refrain from advertising or selling them as such. Any one with a slender knowledge of the French, Latin or English languages will be able to realise for himself that the Author of SALOME, who was a Demy (scholar) of Magdalen College, Oxford, and Greek Gold Medallist at Dublin, was incapable, even in his declining years, of the grammatical and grosser solecisms characterising these publications.

NOTES FROM SOTHEBY'S

COMPILED BY

FRANK KARSLAKE

8vo. Green art-linen, top edges gilt, price £1 1s. 0d.

The immense mass of matter which this volume will contain dealing with almost every conceivable subject, will practically constitute a romance of bibliography. In the course of some criticisms upon the methods of cataloguing, published in Volume 3 of B.A.R., there appeared the following paragraph:—

> ". . . . In some respects the work of the compilers of auction-catalogues is admirable. I mean in the matter of notes, the patience, industry, and research in the compilation of which are of invaluable service to the bibliographer, the bibliophile, and the bookseller."

It can only be repeated that the statement is fully justified by the result of selection, and that the volume should be in the hands of every person interested in literature. The volume will go to press at the earliest possible opportunity.

"Remarkably Clean and Free from Errors."

Mr. GOAD, Bookseller, Bath, Eng., writes:

"Thanks very much for the prompt delivery of Catalogue. It is one of the best catalogues I have yet had turned out. It is well printed, and the proofs were remarkably clean and free from errors."

The Reason is that we are fully equipped for the prompt and efficient production of Bookwork, and we print every book or catalogue from new type.

To give you an idea of our prices we quote for a demy 8vo. catalogue as under, set in Brevier type:

BOOK-AUCTION RECORDS

Where no sizes are given the books are 8vo. et infra. Where no binding is stated it is understood to be the original cloth or paper covers, as published. The following is a key to the abbreviations :—

1st	=	first.	ills.	=	illustrations.
bnd.	=	bound.	l. g.	=	gothic letter.
b. l.	=	Black Letter.	L. P.	=	Large Paper.
ca.	=	circa (about)	lib.	=	library.
cf.	=	calf.	m.	=	marbled.
cl.	=	cloth.	mor.	=	morocco.
cold.	=	coloured.	num.	=	numerous.
cont.	=	contemporary.	N. Y.	=	New York.
dup.	=	duplicate.	ob.	=	oblong.
e.	=	edges.	orig.	=	original.
ed.	=	edited.	P. P.	=	Privately Printed.
Edinb.	=	Edinburgh.	plts.	=	plates.
edn.	=	edition.	port.	=	portrait.
engs.	=	engravings.	Pres. copy	=	Presentation copy.
ex.	=	extra.	s.	=	sprinkled.
fo.	=	folio.	s. d.	=	sans date.
front.	=	frontispiece.	ser.	=	series.
g.	=	gilt.	t. e. g.	=	top edges gilt.
g. l.	=	Gothic Letter.	trans.	=	translated.
hf.	=	half.	v.	=	volume.
g. t.	=	gilt tops ; same as top edges gilt.	v. y.	=	various years.
			vell.	=	vellum.
			w. a. f.	=	sold with all faults.

When a binding is stated to be for example, mor. ex. t. e. g., the term t. e. g. —i.e. top edges gilt—implies that the other edges are uncut. When the other edges are cut the fact is stated.

In some exceptional cases—such, for instance, as a first edition of 'Waverley' or of a Keats' 'Endymion'—when the condition of "original boards, uncut" exists, and accounts for an abnormal price, the description is given in full, without abbreviation.

In some instances autographs are stated in the sale-catalogues to be on the titles, or elsewhere in the books. When such autographs are not mentioned in B. A .R. it is only because they are of no known persons, and have no bearing whatever on the prices realized.

Titles are abbreviated only in the case of books in Lowndes and Brunet, and when not in these works the titles are given verbatim from the sale-catalogue.

The right-hand column of each page gives the names of the auctioneers, (and the date of the sale), as follows :—

C.	=	Christie, Manson, & Woods	P.	=	Puttick & Simpson.
H.	=	Hodgson & Co.	S.	=	Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge
			St.	=	Stevens.

"S. Dec. 7" would therefore represent Sotheby's Dec. 7, 1907, while any month from January to August refers, of course, to the year, 1908.

The spelling of B. A. R. is always that of the original titles, and apparent errors are not misprints. The same applies to some accents in foreign languages of which the type does not invariably permit ; and, also, to old and erroneous punctuation.

The following was sold at Sotheby's on May 31st. 1907, and was accidentally omitted from the volume of that year.

Dryden (John) Lachrymae Musarum. Tears of the Muses, 1st Edn., front. and folding sheet at page 1 (some margins frayed), orig. sheepskin, T. Newcombe, 1649–50 Quaritch, £45

* Contains the earliest appearance of Dryden in print, when he was at Westminster School. There are two issues of the book, one 1649, the other 1650. The former has 27 contributions, the latter has 36. The earlier title-page was suppressed, and the 1650 title substituted. Two leaves were added between pages 42–3, and 9 leaves after page 74. The above copy is important, as it shows the book and the titles in both states, and besides has also inserted signatures F1 and F2, containing a "postscript" and the "Marvell" poem (which had also been given previously). These two leaves are extremely rare, and were cancelled in the majority of copies.

* There is no copy in the British Museum. Only one—an imperfect copy in the Barlow Collection—has appeared for sale in recent years; it is not quoted in Stevens' "Nuggets" and Sabin apparently never saw one, since the collation he prints is not accurate and the date given is 1684. The present example is in good condition (7½-in. by 5½-in.), only the corners of a few leaves are water stained, one leaf (C 2) slightly cut, and small hole in the last leaf. Collation: A 4 ll. B 5 ll.=9 preliminary leaves, C to M in fours, N 2 ll (only), O to Q in fours, R 3 ll., there being 66 leaves in all. There are 3 titles, and there is only one leaf—the second title—between pp. 80 and 89 as numbered.

* Containing compositions stated by Ticknor to be "the foundation of Spanish Drama." This copy differs from Brunet, and also from the collation given in Quaritch's "Bibliotheca Hispana" (Feb. 1895). The above is as follows :—A to L in eights, M 9 ll. N 8 ll.—105 leaves in all. The first 97 leaves are numbered in large Roman numerals, and the last 6 leaves (commencing sig. N) are numbered in small gothic type 97 to 104, having been inserted from the Salamanca edition of 1509. In Quaritch's copy the pages were numbered up to 98, and the last 6 leaves were unnumbered and began a new signature. The British Museum copy is also numbered up to 98, but wants the additional leaves.

——— [(Sir Robert)] Encouragements, for such as shall have intention to bee Under-takers in the new plantation of Cape Briton, now New Galloway in America, by mee Lochinvar, crude woodcut coat of arms on title, repeated on verso of D 2, sm. 4to., cf., Edinb., J. Wreittoun, 1625 Sabin, £140 H. Nov. 21

* This anonymous pamphlet was dedicated to Sir W. Alexander, Earl of Stirling, who in 1621 had obtained the grant of Nova Scotia and (practically) of Canada, and in 1624 issued his "Encouragements to Colonies," to promote colonization. The author, who is better known as the historian of the House of Sutherland, was created premier baronet of Nova Scotia in the latter year, and assisted in the plantation of the Colony. Sabin, in 1875, quotes a copy in the Gordonstown sale at £3, and remarks, "very rare, and worth ten times that amount." There appears to be only one record of a copy sold in London, viz., in the Auchinleck Sale, in 1893, where it realised £76. The above example is sound and in clean condition, and measures 6⅞-in. by 5¼-in. Collation : A 2 ll., B to D in fours, E 3 ll=17 unnumbered leaves.

Biblia Pauperum, sive Historiæ Veteris et Novi Testamenti in Figuris, consisting of 37 plates (some of the costumes coloured in red), modern mor. antique, blind stamped, g. e. (wanting 3 ll. i. e. sign. .q. .s. and .t. ; first l. defective, last l. washed, and large corner missing ; also the plates guarded for binding and a few wormholes mended, w. a. f., fo. (ante 1450) Quaritch, £1,290 S. Mar. 20

*A most desirable copy, having the blank backs not pasted together.

It consists of signatures a to b and .a. to .b. or 40 ll. in all. Heineken enumerated five editions of the Latin Edition, which was published about 25 years before the German one. The above is the First Edition (according to Heineken), having as a distinguishing mark no points between signs. n, o and r of the second alphabet. Ottley gives the date as before 1430, a statement which later researches have not upheld. The illustrations were, according to Graesse, executed by Roger of Bruges, a disciple of Jan van Eyck, and the above edition is said to have been executed in Holland. A full account of this production will be found in Sotheby's Principia Typographica.

(A iiii slightly cut, last leaf margined, and wormholes mended, otherwise fine clean copy, 11¼ by 7¼ in.), fo., Imprinted . . . . as above, the xvi. daye of June, 1549 Ellis, £84 S. Mar. 21

* Containing the last leaf, ordering the price to be not above 2s. 2d. unbounde, or 3s. 8d. in paste or boordes.

——— Another Edn. Grafton's Edition, b. l., black mor. antique, g. e. (margins of titles and 2 ll. restored, and one l. mended, otherwise fine copy, 10⅝ by 7⅜ in., fo., R. Grafton, [1549] Ellis, £92 S. Mar. 21

* Grafton's First Edition of the first Prayer Book of Edward VI., published one day after Whitchurche's edition. It contains at end 4 ll. numbered clxxii to clxxv., giving the Te Deum, the Evangelical Canticles, and the Litany and Suffrages, which do not occur in the body of the book, and end with the King's commandment as to price. This copy belonged to Robert Daly, Bp. of Cashel, and contains on a blank leaf an inscription by an earlier owner.

——— Another Edn. Noted, 1550 [on first leaf:] In this booke is conteyned so much of the Order of Commo prayer as is to be song in Churches: Wherin are vsed only these iiii. sortes of notes, ... The first note is a strene note and is a breue. The second a square note, and is a semy breue: The iii a pycke and is a mynymme. . . . . The iiii is a close, and is only vsed at ye end of a verse. [At bottom of penultimate page:] John Merbecke; limp. vell., (title slightly defective, and a few ll. slightly wormed), from the Maskell collection, sm. 4to., R. Grafton, 1550
Quaritch, £158 S. Mar. 21

——— Another Edn., b. l., mor. antique, g. e. (title damaged, margined and in part facsimile, 6 prel. ll. in facs., and a few mended, Whitchurche [1552] Frank, £49 S. Mar. 21

* The Quarto Edition of the Second Prayer Book of Edward VI. is the rarest of the four editions printed in 1552. Save for the copy in the British Museum no perfect copy is known to exist. There is a separate title to the Psalter, undated, with a distinct woodcut border. The "Godly Prayers" are included, but not the Ordinal.

BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER:

——— The same, The Second Prayer Book of Edward VI., b. l., old calf (rebacked), title and a few leaves wormed, w. a. f., fo., E. Whitchurche, 1552 Ellis, £64 C. Mar. 11

* Contains the two leaves "Acte for the uniformite of Common Prayer."

——— The same. Whitchurche's First Issue of the Second Prayer Book, b. l., mor. antique, blind and gilt tooling, g. e. (wanting last leaf, containing "Faultes Escaped, and the prices of this Boke.") title and a few ll. mended, clean large copy, 10⅝ by 7⅛ in., fo., E. Whitchurche, 1552 Quaritch, £72 S. Mar. 21

* This is according to Lowndes the First Issue of the Second Prayer Book of Edward VI., containing the "Acte for the vniformitie of common prayer, and the Administracion of the Sacramentes" on 2 ll. not mentioned in the List of Contents. "The fourme and maner of makynge and consecratynge Bisshoppes, Priestes and Deacons" has a separate title within a woodcut border.

——— The same. Whitchurche's Second Prayer Book. Another Issue, woodcut titles and large woodcut initials (10 3/16 by 6 11/16 in.), mor. extra, g. e. (title and last leaf in facs., also last leaf but one mended and a portion restored in facsimile, clean copy), fo., 1552 Frank, £48 S. Mar. 2

This issue was unknown to Lowndes, agreeing with none of the collations of the four Folio Editions of 1552 given by him. The following is its collation: a 1 8, a 1-2 ("Act of Uniformity"), b 1-6, ℭ 1-6, ℭℭ 1-8, A-Q in eights. R 1-6. Title "The fourme and maner of makynge and consecratynge Bishoppes," etc. 1 l. (no signature). Preface 1 l. (sign. S2). AA 3-6. BB 1-6. CC1-8. A MS. note on fly-leaf by a former owner states this to be the first edition of Whitchurche of 1552, and to have been that reprinted in Pickering's series of Folio Prayer Books.

——— The same. Third Issue of Whitchurche's Second Prayer Book of Edward VI., b. l., woodcut titles and emblematic woodcut on recto of blank l. at end, old calf gilt, with coronet and monogram in gold on sides (binding slightly damaged, and title mended, fine, sound, clean copy, 10½ by 7 3/16 in.) fo., E. Whitchurche, 1552 Leighton, £124 S. Mar. 21

* In excellent preservation, not only genuine and perfect throughout, but also beautifully clean, characteristics of very few copies occurring for sale. The woodcut of the Blessed Virgin at end (unknown to Lowndes, and absent from the British Museum copy), is of great interest. As it has the same water-mark, there is no doubt that it was published with the work. Another unusual occurrence is a leaf between signs. O1 and 2, beginning "Although no ordre can be perfectlye deuysed," etc. (the original "Black Rubric"), of which a MS. note by a former owner says: "It was inserted after the book was prepared for issuing & delayed its publication till Nov. 1552. The only reprint I find of this leaf is in the 4to Edition of Edw. 6, without date [q. v. infra] showing that it was printed between Nov. 1552 & July 1553 when Edward died." It contains the 2 ll. of the Act of Uniformity, and the separate title to the Ordinal, and its collation agrees with that given by Lowndes for the Third Issue.

——— Another Edn., b. l., printer's device at end of Ordinal, mor. ex., g. e. by F. Bedford (1 leaf mended, others margined, a few wormholes repaired, otherwise very fine copy. 11 by 7¼ in.) fo., R. Graftonus, mense Augusti, 1552 Quaritch, £85 S. Mar. 21

* Grafton's edition of the Second Prayer Book of Edward VI. It contains at end the leaf fixing the price, preceded by the Ordinal 17 ll. with a separate woodcut title:—Anno a salutifero Virginis tu, 1552

BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER:

——— Another Edn., b. l., mor. extra, blind-tooled, g. e. by F. Bedford (6 ll. of the Almanack margined and a few lines in facs.), sm. 4to., R. Jugge, and I. Cawood, 1562 Quaritch, £46 S. Mar. 21

* The Second Quarto Edition of Queen Elizabeth's Prayer Book.

——— Another Edn., b. l., blue mor., g. e. (title and colophon mended, and a few ll. stained), from the Lea Wilson collection, sm. 4to., R. Jugge & J. Cawood [date from Psalter], 1570 Pond, £19 S. Mar. 21

——— Another Edn. Q. Elizabeth, Latin. Liber Precum Publicarum, sev Ministerij Ecclesiasticæ administrationis Sacramentorum, aliorumque rituum & cæremoniarum, in Ecclesia Anglicana, mor. ex., g. e. (title inlaid, otherwise fine copy), Londini, per Assignationem Francisci Floræ [col. :] Excudebat T. Vautrollerius, 1574 Leighton, £5 10s. S. Mar. 21

* The valuable Latin version of the Elizabethan book, published by authority. It includes the Latin Psalter of Sebastian Munster, but not the Ordinal. In the Communion Office, the Celebrant in the Prayer of Consecration is given as "Sacerdos."

——— Another Edn. The Booke of Common Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, b. l., title within woodcut border, and numerous large woodcut initials, mor. antique, with gilt and blind ornaments, g. e. (title and first 3 ll. inlaid, and some margined, but sound, good copy, 10¾ by 7⅛ in.) fo., Christopher Barker, 1580 Leighton, £20 10s. S. Mar. 21

* Unknown to Lowndes, who only mentions Barker's Folio Edition of 1581

——— Another Edn., b. l. mor. ex., gilt ornaments, g. e. by F. Bedford, very fine copy, sm. 4to., R. Barker, 1604 Frank, £21 S. Mar. 21

* The fourth edition of James I's Prayer Book, the second and third being published in the same year in folio. No copies of the fourth edition have occurred for sale by auction within the last 20 years.

——— Another Edn., b. l., R. Barker, 1607, 1606—Whole Book of Psalmes, in English Meeter by Sternhold and Hopkins, Stationer's Company, 1606; in 1 vol., mor. ex., g. e. by F. Bedford, from the library of Lord Crewe, Bp. of Durham (title guarded), fo., 1607, 6 Leighton, £8 10s. S. Mar. 21

——— Another Edn., with Psalter, b. l., shaved and stained, half mor., 4to., R. Barker, 1613 Wallace, 6s. S. Mar. 12

——— Another Edn., the Psalter or Psalms of David, after the Translation of the Great Bible: b. l., mor. super ex., Royal arms on sides, the sides covered with stars, g. e. by J. Clarke, fine copy, sm. 4to., B. Norton and J. Bill, 1618 Leighton, £10 15s. S. Mar. 21

——— Another Edn., b. l., black mor. antique, g. e. (title mended and a small portion in facs., a number of ll. margined, and a few catchwords and signatures cut off), fo., R. Barker and Assignes of J. Bill, 1633 Soames, £4 4s. S. Mar. 21

——— Another Edn., for the use of the Church of Scotland, 1st Edn. of Laud's Book, Edinb. 1637, and Psalter, with the rare cancelled leaf (Psalm 109 containing 30 verses only) and the catchword "Certaine" on last leaf, 1636, b. l., in 1 vol., sound copy, old calf, slightly scored and wormed, fo. J. C. Taylor, £5 7s. 6d. H. Jan. 7

——— The same, with the Psalter, and The Psalmes of King David, trans. by King James [in Metre], b. l., with music, very fine, large copy, orig. calf, metal clasps, Edinb., R. Young, 1637–6; London, T. Harper, 1636 Frank, £19 10s. S. Mar. 21

* The Original Edition of Laud's Prayer Book for Scotland, originally in the library of the Duke of Sussex. It is most interesting as having underlined with a pen the personal annotations of Charles I. This is pointed out in a long MS. note by T. J. Pettigrew, the Duke of Sussex's librarian.

BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER:

——— The same, mor. antique, g. e., fine copy. fo., Edinb., R. Young, 1637, 6 Frank, £8 8s. S. Mar. 21

* Both the above copies have at end the catchword "Certaine," denoting them to be of the earliest issue.

——— Another Edn., with Psalter, 1639; Booke of Psalmes in Meeter by Sternhold and Hopkins, 1637, b. l., engd. titles, calf, rebacked, 4to., R. Barker, 1637–39 Barnard, £1 S. Jan. 15

——— Another Edn. (with Psalter), b. l., woodcut titles, mor. extra, g. e. (title mended, and some marginal notes cut, otherwise fine copy), fo., R. Barker and Assigns of J. Bill, 1639 Frank, £4 5s. S. Mar. 21

* At end of the Psalms are 4 ll. of "Certain godly prayers to be used for sundry purposes."

——— Another Edn., engd. title by Loggan, b. l., old diced calf, gilt panel fo., 1662 Bull, £1 11s. H. Jan. 23

——— Another Edn., according to the use of the Church of Ireland, front. by D. Loggan (with the New Version of the Psalms, by N. Tate and N. Brady, L. P.), calf, g. e. stamped "Thomas Earl of Westmeath," fo., Dublin, G. Grierson, 1750–1 Frank, £4 10s. S. Mar. 21

* Contains the Irish Act of Uniformity, the "Form of Prayer for the Visitation of Prisoners," and the Constitution and Canons of the Synods of Dublin, of 1634 and 1711

——— Another Edn., Proposed to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church, at a Convention of the said Church in the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, &c., held at Philadelphia, from September 27th to October 7th, 1785, with the Psalms in metre and 8 pages of music, cont. red mor. ex., g. e., Philadelphia, Hall and Sellers, 1786 Stevens, £12 C. Mar. 11

* "The Gift of William Burton, Esq., of Pennsylvania, 1786."—

* This volume belonged to A.C.Ducarel,and has his book plate and the following MS. note by him : " This Collection of French Coins was presented to me by M. Claude Gros de Boz, Keeper of the French Kings Coins and Medals, in 1752, & there are but three compleat Copies of them extant in Europe, viz. one wch M. de Boze kept for himself, one wch he gave to the late Dr. Mead, sold at his Auction to Dr. Andrew Gifford, F. S.A. & this—See M. de Boze's Letters bouud in this Book wch belongs to me. And : Coltee Ducarel. Oct. 9, 1755." The two letters referred to are in the work. Brunet, who copied the title of the work from the catalogue of the Van Damme Library, expresses his ignorance of the authority on which it was stated that only three copies were printed. and the authorship attributed to De Boze ; nor was the work known to Quérard or to the author's biographer in the Biographie Générale.

Breuiarium insignis | ac metropolitane eccle | sie eboracesis vna cum | Pica (quod vulgo dicitr) diligentissime emendatum : et in | Parisioru Academia expesis | Fracisci Regnault eiusdem | vniuersitatis bibliopole iura | ti : et honesti viri Joanis Gas | cheti in predicta Eboracensi ciuitate comoratis ipressum. ¶ Pars Hyemalis, g. l. (much contracted), orig. calf, last leaf defective, also corner of Gii, otherwise good copy, genuine throughout, with autograph "Henricus comes Arundel" on title (see below), and auto. letters from Mr. Stephen W. Lawley, on the volume, 32mo., Venit Parisiis, Fracisco Regnault sub insigni Elephantis e regione Maturinorum, 1533 Quaritch, £355 S. Mar. 20

* A unique volume, no other copy being known to exist. An imperfect copy of its fellow volume, the Pars Estivalis, which is also unique, is in the British Museum. Mr. Lawley, in describing the above volume in his work on the York Breviaries, published by the Surtees Society in 1871, says: "This, with its fellow volume [pars estivalis] in the British Museum, gives us the latest known arrangement and text of the York Breviary. They are therefore of great value; and being very correctly printed are most useful for collation. Except for the Kalendar (which most probably never was issued with the Winter Service), and for a slight portion torn off the last leaf, it is complete, bound in calf, and in excellent preservation. The size is 4 by 3, it has double columns, and thirty-six lines in each column. (1) Temporale a1 to v8 b, all in eights. (2) Kalendar gone. (3) Psalterium and Commune. A1 to P8b, all in eights, numbered in right hand corner of the page from fo. j to fo. cxx. (4) Sanctorale, from S. Andrew to Wilfridi episcopi et confessoris, aa1 to hh4. The printed editions of the York Breviary are rarer than almost any other English Use, and the above volume is not only unique in itself, but one of the only twelve volumes, portions or full copies, eight of known dates, and three undated, which are known to exist (Mr. Lawley). It is therefore of the extremest interest and importance, It is further most interesting for having belonged to Henry Fitzalan, 12th Earl of Arundel (1511?–1580), well known in connexion with his attempt to depose Queen Elizabeth in favour of Mary, Queen of Scots, and the Ridolfi Plot. It bears his autograph and MS. notes on the title and fly-leaf.

——— [(Samuel)] Hudibras. The First Part, (containing "Imprimatur," Nov. 11, 1662), 1663; the Second Part ('Imprimatur,' dated Nov. 5, 1663), 1664; the Third and Last Part, Miller, 1678; 1st Edns., port. inserted, 3 vol., old russ, gilt, g. e., fine copies, 1662–78 Bain, £35 S. Mar. 20

* Belonged to Dr. Bliss, who has added variations from later editions, and references to each volume, and "A Sketch of the House and Lands at Strensham, in Worcestershire, where Samuel Butler was born." Each vol. has his initials on signature Bi. Part III. is in the first state, having a leaf of Errata at end, and no "Imprimatur" on reverse of title, ——— The same, First Duodesimo Edition of Part I., with "Imprimatur" Nov. 11, 1662, title ruled with red, old russ. gilt, fine copy, J. G. for Richard Marriott, 1663 B. F. Stevens, £1 1s. S. Mar. 20

* Dr. Bliss's copy, with his initials on signature Bi, and numer- MS. references in his handwriting.

——— The same, First and Second Parts (with "Imprimaturs" Nov. 11, 1662, and Nov. 5, 1663,) the two parts in 1 vol., old calf gilt, 1663–4 Leighton, £5 S. Mar. 20

* With inscription on fly-leaf, "For the right honble. The Lady Vaughan," presumably the third wife of Richard Vaughan," second Earl of Carbery, generally styled "Lord Vaughan," and herself the friend of Milton, who dedicated to her his "Ayres and Dialogues," Lord Vaughan appointed Butler steward of Ludlow Castle, where he appears to have written the first part of "Hudibras." The laurel wreath on the title of part I. contains also within it "For the Lady Vaughan." No doubt a Presentation Copy from the Author to the Wife of his patron.

——— The same, First Part, 1663; the Second Part, 1663; 2 vol., old russ. gilt, g. e. (few headlines shorn), 1663 Leighton, £1 13s. S. Mar. 20

* From Dr. Bliss's library, with his initials. The second part of the "spurious edition" is a "doggrel substitute" (Lowndes), no "spurious edition" of the genuine second part having ever been published according to the latter. No 12mo. edition of the third part has ever been issued, either genuine or spurious.

Dante. La Divina Commedia [col Comento de Benvenuto da Imola, e Viat di Dante del Boccaccio], g. l., in double columns of 49 lines, with signatures, ruled in red throughout and rubricated (1 leaf defective), oak boards, covered with leather, embossed and entirely covered with gold, 4 silver masks as bosses, silver corners and clasp, edges decorated with gold and colours, the design on the sides includes the arms of a Cardinal, with five fleur-de-lys ; the book is enclosed in a massive silver casquet, richly moulded, the compartments filled in with embossed gilt designs. The lid has bosses and fleur-de-lys to match the book [Venetiis, Vindelin de Spira, 1477], fo. Leighton, £53 C. Mar. 11

* The First Edition with the Commentary by Imola. The sonnet at end contains the commentator's name, together with that of the printer and date. The fifteen preliminary leaves containing Boccaccio's Life of the Poet are generally wanting. The collation agrees with that given in Brunet, with the exception that hh and ii are in eights instead of tens, but the British Museum copy has also this exception.

——— Paradise Lost, mor., g. e by J. Clarke (title and HH 4 slightly mended, and a stain on the former, otherwise fine copy), sm. 4to., London/ Printed, and are to be sold by Peter Parker/ under Creed Church neer Aldgate , And by/ Robert Boulter at the Turk's Head in Bishopsgate-street ;/ and Matthias Walker under St. Dunstans Church/ in Fleet-street, 1667/ Quaritch, £155 S. Mar. 20

* The above is really the first issue (or title page) of the first edition, and classed as such by Prof. Masson. Lowndes however makes it the second title-page, a statement on which Mr. H. G. Bohn remarks: "It should be observed that, although this variation is placed as the second, it is just as likely to be the first, as there is no evidence to the contrary." This copy belonged to J. P. Kemble, who has written his name on reverse of title.

——— The same, fine copy, mor., g. e. by J. Clarks, sm. 4to., London Printed, and are to be sold by Peter Parker under Creed Church, neer Aldgate , And by Robert Boulter at the Turks Head in Bishopsgate-street ; And Matthias Walker, under St. Dunstans Church in Fleet-street, 1667 Quaritch, £192 S. Mar. 20

* This copy has the second title according to Prof. Masson, and the first according to Lowndes. Both editions, are, save for the author's name being in a larger type, exactly alike, consisting of title and signatures A-Z and Aa Tt in fours, and Vv in 2, or 172 ll. in all, without pagination These title-pages (issued in 1667) are generally considered to represent the first issues of the work, and are equally rare.

— The same, mor., g. e. by J. Clarke, (title, and a few ll. mended), sm. 4to., London, Printed by S. Simmons, and are to be sold by T. Helder at the Angel in Little Brittain. 1669. Dobell, £27 S. Mar. 20

* This has Lowndes's and Prof. Masson's seventh title-page, and contains the prel. ll. as in the foregoing issue, with the printer's address in 5 lines.

- The same, with Seventh title-page; the Printer to the Reader, five lines, the last page of Book III. has the top line numbered 740, and "with" instead of "in" in the penultimate line, fine copy, stamped mor. ex., g. e. by Zaehnsdorf, 4to., S. Simmons, 1669 Sotheran, £29 10s. S. Mar. 26

The same, old calf (slight hole burnt in title and corner of Nn i rn, large copy, with some rough lower edges), sm. 4to. London, rinted by S. Simmons, and are to be sold by T. Heller, at the ngel in Little Brittain. 1669. Edwards, £25 10s. S. Mar. 20

* Lowndes's eighth and last title-page, containing the 7 prel. ll. but ut printer's address. There is also a mistake in the list of Errata ontained in previous issues. As to the rarity of the various s, the following summary of 52 copies sold at auction within the ve years may be of interest: 1st (4), 2nd (2), 3rd (2), 4th (13), 0), 6th (2), 7th (26), 8th (3).

SHAKESPEARE. Separate Plays. :—

Shakespeare (Wm.) Merchant of Venice : the Excellent/ History of the Mer/chant of Venice.| With the extreme cruelty of Shylocke/ the Iew towards the saide Merchant, in cut/ting a iust pound of his flesh. And the obtaining/ of Portia, by the choyce of/ three Caskets,/ 1st Edn., blue mor. ex., g. e. by C. Lewis, sm. 4to., J. Roberts, 1600 Frank, £290 S. Mar. 21

* This copy is, but for the bottom corner of the title being neatly mended, and a small hole in sign. B1 (defacing one letter on each side) in faultless condition, clean, and with very good margins, measuring 7⅛ by 5 3/10 inches. The work contains signatures A-K in fours, or 40 leaves in all, without pagination. Two editions of this Shakespeare Quarto were printed in 1600, one by J. Roberts (as above), and the other by " J. R. for Thomas Hayes." Considerable doubt existed as to the priority of these two editions ; but as the former was entered in Stationers' Co.'s Register on July 22, 1598, whereas that by Hayes was not registered until Oct. 28, 1600, it may well claim to be the First Edition.

SHAKESPEARE. Collected Works :—

Shakespeare's Works, the First Four Folios, uniformly bound in red morocco super extra, Harleian gold tooling on sides, richly tooled backs, inside dentelles, gilt gauffered edges, by C. Lewis, all in good condition, and genuine throughout, viz. :——Comedies,/ Histories, &/ Tragedies./ [Droeshout portrait] London/ Printed by Isaac Iaggard, and Ed. Blount. 1623./ [At end :] Printed at the Charges of W. Jaggard, Ed. Blount, I. Smethweeke/ and W. Aspley 1623, the rare First Folio, 12¼ by 7⅞ inches ; Ben Jonson's verses guarded, corners of title and a few ll. mended, and last l. edged and 4 letters restored in facsimile, otherwise in very excellent state. The first edition probably consisted of 500 copies, of which about 200 survive ; but of these less than 20 are perfect.—Comedies,/ Histories and Tragedies./ the Second Impression./ [Droeshout portrait], w. a. f. London/ Printed by Tho. Cotes for Robert Allot, and are to be sold at the signe/ of the Black Beare in Paules Church-yard. 1632./ [At end:] Thomas Cotes for John Smethwick, William Apsley, Richard Hawkins, Richard Meighen and Robert Allot, 1632. The Second Folio, size 13 3/16 by 8 15/16 inches ; title and verses guarded, the penultimate page edged, and last l. neatly mended and portions of rulings restored in facsimile, otherwise a very good copy.—Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies./ The Third Impression./ [blank space] w. a. f. London,/ Printed for Philip Chetwinde, 1663 The Third Folio, size 13½ by 8⅝ inches ; with Ben Jonson's verses opposite title in large type, title guarded and top margined, verses guarded and bottom margined, and Dedication and last l. guarded, otherwise fine copy. An excessively rare issue of the third edition, bearing the 1663 imprint, and as originally issued without the portrait and the seven spurious plays. The above copy has, however these latter inserted. Very few copies are known to exist with the above imprint.—Comedies,/ Histories,/ and/ Tragedies./ The Fourth Edition./ [woodcut ornament] London,/ Printed for H. Herringman, E. Brewster, and R. Bentley, at the Anchor in the/ New Exchange, the Crane in St. Pauls Church-Yard, and in/ Russel-Street, Covent-Garden. 1685./ The Fourth Folio, size 14 by 9 ins. ; in matchless condition. Thompson, £3,850 S. Mar. 21

* The above Four Folios form probably one of the finest sets extant They are remarkable not only for their size, but also for their choice condition, and if desired at the time of sale will be offered together as a set in one lot. The third edition is especially interesting on account of the rare variation in the title-page. They will be sold not subject to return except for missing leaves.

——— Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Second Impression, the leaf of verses signed B. I., repaired and having the line "To the Reader," in facsimile, otherwise a tall, fine and perfect copy, 13¼ in. by 8½ in., brown mor. ex., blind tooled, g. e., printed by Tho. Cotes, for Robert Allot, and are to be sold at his shop at the signe of the blacke Beare in Paul's Church yard, fo., 1632 Arnold, £100 P. Jan. 16

* One of the few copies which have the title and the leaf beginning "Upon the Effigies," printed upon Thick Paper.

——— Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies, the Fourth Edition, portrait by Droeshout, cut round and inlaid, last leaf defective and mended, else a sound, clean copy, 13¾ by 8¾ in., crimson mor., g. e. by Pratt, fo., 1685 Dobell, £40 S. Feb. 20

* Vol. I. has the Dedication to the "Empresse Elizabeth" on rev. of title and four unnumbered leaves at end, containing additions which were made to the original issue of the first edition, which ended at p. 600, and consist of fifteen Sonnets to the Poets' patrons. There are several varieties of the additional leaves, which occur only in a few copies. The one as above, together with the fact that the Welsh words on p. 332 of vol. I. are not printed, denote it to be the first issue of the first edition. The present copy belonged to Dr. Bliss, and has a MS. note by him on fly-leaf.

* This volume was King Charles's property. It has his autograph initials C. R. in monogram on two blank leaves at end, and on a flyleaf in front he has written a list of the Contents of the Volume. On the first flyleaf is written in another hand, but contemporary, "Da Domine quod vibeas (?) et ml quod Vis," and the same hand has written on the next flyleaf, "The Kings Book, 1648." Below the list written by the King is a note in the same hand as the above, rendered partly illegible by being run through with a pen, "With this booke the late King past the terryble lonely hours in his doleful restraint in Carisbrooke Castle in the Isle of Wight, making that Catalogue as above with his own hand." These notes were evidently written by an ancestor of the present owner who was in attendance on the King in his last days.

—— The same, orig. calf, m. e., in a case, 1830 Knott, £18 S. Jun. 2
* The interest is intensified by the original intention it should be a joint publication containing also the Poems of Arthur Hallam. The idea was given up at the suggestion of Hallam's father, and no copy of the complete book has hitherto occurred for sale. In the present copy, Hallam's Poems are included, and on the title has been added in MS., after Tennyson's name, "and Arthur Hallam," while on p. 1 of the second part has been written "Poems by Arthur Hallam, Esqre." In a note to Timbuctoo, Hallam refers to Tennyson's Prize Poem of the same name, and concludes it by saying "which most justly, in my opinion, adjudged the prize to the poem of my friend whose name is prefixed with mine to this volume." Some partially erased pencil notes, indicating the persons to whom certain poems were addressed (Sir F. H. Doyle, J. Milnes Gaskell, Richard Milnes, etc.),render it probable that the volume belonged to Hallam himself.

THE HOSKIER COLLECTION OF INCUNABULA

(The Collection of Incunabula, the property of Mr. H. C. Hoskier, sold at Sotheby's in the sale commencing on June 29th and ending on July 2nd, was of such an exceptional character that it is considered advisable, in this instance, to depart from the usual method of B.A.R., and to reproduce the Collection exactly in the order of the sale catalogue. As the entries are arranged under the heads of countries, towns and printers—thus automatically forming an Index—they will not be included in the Index at the end of this volume, except under "Hoskier" and "Incunabula.") INCUNABULA arranged in chronological order of Presses, according to Proctor's Index to Early Printed Books.

A few slight wormholes. Hopper, £11

Peregrino Pasquale with D. Bertochus—(Second Press)

1485. Maius (Junianus) De priscorum proprietate verborum. Hain *10543, Proctor 4849. 238 ll., roman characters, double columns, in genuine Canevari binding, gilt and blind tooled, with medallion of Apollo and inscription ΟΡΘΩΣ ΚΑΙ ΜΗΛΟΞΙΩΣ ; back mended, in box, sm. fo. Leighton, £16

* Dem. Canevari was born at Genoa in 1559, and possessed one of the finest libraries of the period. It is impossible, however, that all the books with the oval medallion on the sides were actually bound by him, for they were nearly all printed at a date anterior to his birth, and the bindings conform to the same period. He probably inherited them from his father.

1485. Hieronymus. Vita et Mors. Hain *8631, Proctor 4850. 44 ll. (Hain say 43), l. g., double columns, with printer's mark, MS. notes.—Bernardinus Benalius 1494. Augustinus. Epistolae quaedam. * One of the earliest issues, with the errors in pagination and signatures, but the errors differ from those in other copies, as 56 for 65 L j and M j are marked I j and K j respectively, and the leaves are paged 65, 82-3, 68-9, 86-7, 72-3, 90-1, 76-77, 94-5, and 80, N j beginning with page 97, after which the pagination is correct to the end. Sheets L and M. appear to belong to another edition, and there is no half title. [Although this copy is described as made up from two editions it agrees with the full collation of a copy described in B.P.C., 1903, No. 3836, and therefore the "error" copies are probably all incorrect in signatures L and M. Ed.]

Horae beatiss. virginis secundum consuetudinum romanae curia : Septem psalmi poenitentiales cum latiniis et orationibus, mor., g. e. by F. Bedford, Venet. Aldus, 1497 Gaston, £31 10s. S. Jun. 30

—— —— Another copy, old Italian red mor., ib. 1497 Chevalier, £38 S. Jun. 30

* This copy starts with the title " Brevissima introductio ad litteras graecas," with the same woodcut of the Virgin and Angel on verso, and is followed by this 14 ll. grammatical digest, printed in red and black. No other copy of this is known. The Abbè Morelli informed Renouard that he had seen one in Italy, but Renouard doubted whether it were an integral part of the book, which it can here be seen to be. In consequence of the woodcut thus appearing it has evidently not been thought necessary to repeat it at the beginning of the Horae, and the leaf a j is not in this copy. The Introductio contains the Lord's Prayer, in which occurs the some misprint, ῥήσαι for ῥύσαι (corrected by hand), which has already occurred in the Laskaris of 1494–5. This error has been corrected in the Institutiones of Bolzanius, the colophon of which is dated Jan. 1497, therefore as this Introductio had undoubtedly been set up from the Laskaris it naturally follows that it must have been printed prior to the Bolzanius, and the Greek colophon of the Horae may mean 5 Jan. 1497, instead of 5 Dec. as generally supposed. Even if it be not so, the whole question is of great interest to bibliographers.

(Dates of editions are in thick type)

If, through any of those printers' errors to which all books are liable, an entry should not be found on the page indicated, search should be made in each of the four alphabetical sections of the volume. The alphabetical arrangement so simplifies search that some subscribers have doubted the need for an Index.
